Orphan Grade 5 HBJ,1989-02      Nobody's Orphan-CC ,      Nobody's Child G.J. Urquhart,2020-11-25 Not yet four years old Gloria was forcibly separated from her baby brother Kevin and entered into the often brutal world of the Rothwell Children's Home where she found occasional moments of caring among the toughest of environments In this book we move through Gloria's childhood and learn of the deep friendship of two aunts she meets during the fostering process the twists and turns in her search for Kevin her nervous breakdown and her incarceration in an old Victorian style institution where Gloria is visited by two unfamiliar relatives with whom she is forced to live Aged twenty one Gloria starts independent living allowing her to re establish her friendship with her aunts who reveal her father's identity True love then follows as she meets and marries Robert Urquhart who supports her unwaveringly in her desperate and passionate quest to find her brother This powerful memoir sheds light on what life was like in a 1950s children's home and follows the author on her compelling journey to find happiness and a family of her own

Nobody's Boy and His Pals

Hendrik Hartog,2024-07-05 An engaging account of social reformer Jack Robbins the Boys Brotherhood Republic and their legacy In 1914 social reformer Jack Robbins and a group of adolescent boys in Chicago founded the Boys Brotherhood Republic an unconventional and unusual institution During a moral panic about delinquent boys Robbins did not seek to rehabilitate and or punish wayward youths Instead the boys governed themselves democratically and with compassion for one another and lived by their mantra So long as there are boys in trouble we too are in trouble For nearly thirty years Robbins was their supervisor and the will he drafted in the late 1950s suggests that he continued to care about forgotten boys even as the political and legal contexts that shaped children's lives changed dramatically Nobody's Boy and His Pals is a lively investigation that challenges our ideas about the history of American childhood and the law Scouring the archives for traces of the elusive Jack Robbins Hendrik Hartog examines the legal histories of Progressive reform childhood criminality repression and free speech The curiosity of Robbins's story is compounded by the legal challenges to his will which wound up establishing the extent to which last wishes must conform to dominant social values Filled with persistent mysteries and surprising connections Nobody's Boy and His Pals illuminates themes of childhood and adolescence race and ethnicity sexuality wealth and poverty and civil liberties across the American Century Everyone's Children, Nobody's Child Justine Wise Polier, 1941 Nobody's Child, Etc C. E. BOWEN, 1871 The Best in Children's Books University of Chicago.

Center for Children's Books, 1986-08 Designed to aid adults parents teachers librarians in selecting from the best of recent children's literature this guide provides 1 400 reviews of books published between 1979 and 1984 This volume carries on the tradition established by Zena Sutherland's two earlier collections covering the periods from 1966 to 1972 and 1973 to 1978 Her 1973 edition of The Best in Children's Books was cited by the American School Board Journal as one of the outstanding books of the year in education Nobody's Own George Eliel Sargent, 1872 Victorian Fictions of Middle-Class Status

Albert D. Pionke, 2022-08-24 Victorian Fictions of Middle Class Status recovers the novelistic pervasiveness of a Reform Era rhetorical form the negative assertion of value which grounds middle class claims to social authority in repudiations of such conventional warrants as birth wealth numerical preponderance command of fact and specifically for women the symbolic phallus Bringing together historical literary and sociological theory this study recaptures the Victorians broad sense of epistemological uncertainty about their rapidly changing society reconstructs novelists specific attempts to legitimate their traditionally low status genre and offers fresh readings of novels by Charlotte Bronte Wilkie Collins Charles Dickens George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell William North Anthony Trollope William Makepeace Thackeray and Charlotte Yonge among others Nobody's Virginia Demarest, 1911 The Accountant, 1924 Cinema and the Cultural Cold War

Sangjoon Lee, 2020-12-15 Cinema and the Cultural Cold War explores the ways in which postwar Asian cinema was shaped by transnational collaborations and competitions between newly independent and colonial states at the height of Cold War politics Sangjoon Lee adopts a simultaneously global and regional approach when analyzing the region's film cultures and industries New economic conditions in the Asian region and shared postwar experiences among the early cinema entrepreneurs were influenced by Cold War politics US cultural diplomacy and intensified cultural flows during the 1950s and 1960s By taking a closer look at the cultural realities of this tumultuous period Lee comprehensively reconstructs Asian film history in light of the international relationships forged broken and re-established as the influence of the non-aligned movement grew across the Cold War Lee elucidates how motion picture executives creative personnel policy makers and intellectuals in East and Southeast Asia aspired to industrialize their Hollywood inspired system in order to expand the market and raise the competitiveness of their cultural products They did this by forming the Federation of Motion Picture Producers in Asia co hosting the Asian Film Festival and co producing films Cinema and the Cultural Cold War demonstrates that the emergence of the first intensive postwar film producers network in Asia was in large part the offspring of Cold War cultural politics and the product of American hegemony Film festivals that took place in cities as diverse as Tokyo Singapore Hong Kong and Kuala Lumpur were annual showcases of cinematic talent as well as opportunities for the Central Intelligence Agency to establish and maintain cultural political and institutional linkages between the United States and Asia during the Cold War Cinema and the Cultural Cold War reanimates this almost forgotten history of cinema and the film industry in Asia

Imagined Orphans Lydia Murdoch, 2006-02-16 With his dirty tattered clothes and hollowed out face the image of Oliver Twist is the enduring symbol of the young indigent spilling out of the orphanages and haunting the streets of late nineteenth century London He is the victim of two evils an aristocratic ruling class and more directly neglectful parents Although poor children were often portrayed as real life Oliver Twists either orphaned or abandoned by unworthy parents they in fact frequently maintained contact and were eventually reunited with their families In Imagined Orphans Lydia Murdoch focuses on this discrepancy between the representation and the reality of children's experiences within welfare institutions a discrepancy that she argues stems from conflicts over middle and working class notions of citizenship Reformers efforts to depict poor children as either orphaned or endangered by abusive or no good parents fed upon the poor's increasing exclusion from the Victorian social body Reformers used the public's growing distrust and pitiless attitude toward poor adults to increase charity and state aid to the children With a critical eye to social issues of the period Murdoch urges readers to reconsider the stereotypically dire situation of families living in poverty While reformers' motivations seem well intentioned she shows how their methods solidified the public's anti poor sentiment and justified a minimalist welfare state that engendered a cycle of poverty As they worked to fashion model citizens reformers' efforts to protect and care for children took on an increasingly imperial cast that would continue into the twentieth century

The Tides of Fate Henry Howard Harper, 1919

Lost Side of an Orphan's Moon Caleb Pirtle III, 2021-12-18 The brilliantly conceived historical mystery will forever change the way you look at those who endured and survived hard times when the discovery of oil breathed hope into communities that were dying from burnt crops and wilted cotton stalks As one reviewer said the award winning Boomtown Saga Combine The Grapes of Wrath and maybe a little Huck Finn and perhaps you will understand the magnitude of this story set in a small town in East Texas in the Great Depression It should go down as a classic in American literature An oil boom has broken the back of the Great Depression A small East Texas town is awash with new names and new faces and no one knows whose eyes belong to the man who carried a lovely fancy dancer from the ballroom of a Sporting House into the darkness of a rainy night and killed her Was it a crime of passion Did she reject him Was it someone from her past Or was he as unfamiliar as the next roustabout or drifter walking the streets A preacher has set up the tent for his traveling Love and Salvation Show on the road beside the courthouse A strange hunchback with a voice of doom casts an uneasy shadow across the town Where did he come from Nobody knows Men are spending their hard earned money with dime a dance girls looking for love a wife or something more sinister Everyone has a secret Whose secret sent the lovely Louise Fontaine to a muddy grave And who is the small boy who stepped off the train with a paper note attached to his coat that said My name is Ollie Porter My daddy is Oliver Porter He works in the oilfields Does anyone know where he is Is the boy connected to the fancy dancer or perhaps the killer Or is he just a waif in search of a home Ashland is a town without law It is threatening to explode from the mass of humanity crowding into the oilfield Is the death of the fancy dancer only the first And can Doc the charming and lovable con man and Eudora the beautiful widow catch a killer before they find out who s the next to die    The Vicente Rama Reader Vicente Rama, Renato E.
