Postcards from the Sonora Border Daniel D. Arreola, 2017-02-21 Young men ride horses on a dusty main road through town Cars and gas stations gradually intrude on the land and years later curiosity shops and cantinas change the face of Mexican border towns south of Arizona Between 1900 and the late 1950s Mexican border towns came of age both as centers of commerce and as tourist destinations Postcards from the Sonora Border reveals how images in this case the iconic postcard shape the way we experience and think about place Making use of his personal collection of historic images Daniel D Arreola captures the evolution of Sonoran border towns creating a sense of visual time travel for the reader Supported by maps and visual imagery the author shares the geographical and historical story of five unique border towns Agua Prieta Naco Nogales Sonoyta and San Luis R o Colorado Postcards from the Sonora Border introduces us to these important towns and provides individual stories about each using the postcards as markers No one postcard view tells the complete story rather the sense of place emerges image by image as the author pulls readers through the collection as an assembled view Arreola reveals how often the same locations and landmarks of a town were photographed as postcard images generation after generation giving a long and dynamic view of the inhabitants through time Arranged chronologically Arreola's postcards allow us to discover the changing perceptions of place in the borderlands of Sonora Mexico Intelligent Transportation Systems at international borders a cross-cutting study : facilitating trade and enhancing transportation safety.
