nation tight in its grip something funny was happening right across the jungle of Britain's nightlife scene. People were dressing down not up to go to clubs. And they were dancing right through the night armed seemingly with only bottles of water, Ecstasy and acid house music had arrived on British shores and a tribal battle between for the moral future of the nation between the youth and the establishment had begun. In The Second Summer of Love author and dance music promoter Alon Shulman uses exclusive contributions from the world's biggest DJs including Paul Oakenfold, Carl Cox, Fatboy Slim, Moby, Faithless, Mr C, Farley Heller, Danny Rampling and many others to faithfully recreate the story of the summers of 1988 and 1989 and chart the birth and rise of Acid House dance music and club culture right through to the modern day where dance music has become a culturally dominant global industry. Complete with stunning unseen photographs this is the first authentic account of what really happened in that glorious period from the politics and the people to the music, the drugs, the fashion and the culture told by people who were there as they bring to life the creation of an underground scene which inadvertently altered the course of modern global youth culture forever. It's as if house music and rave culture tapped into this ancient predilection of humans to stay up all night dancing and staring into the fire and just supercharged it with electricity and MDMA. Moby: What I was experiencing was right in front of my eyes, it was happening right now and I loved it.

Carl Cox: It opened my eyes and ears to a different spirit in music. Fatboy Slim: Pets and Promises [2d Reader], 1976. Pets and Promises is a reading and language development program which reflects the interests and learning capabilities of pupils at the second grade level. The text stresses racial and ethnic balance, fair treatment of the sexes and occupational awareness. New York Magazine, 1971-12-20.
