Nominalisme Pictural:

Pictorial Nominalism Thierry De Duve, 2005-10-01 Reveals the invention of the readymade as a critical point in contemporary art A Wounded Innocence Alejandro R. Garcia-Rivera, 2015-03-15 What is the theological significance of art Why has the Church always encouraged the arts What is so profoundly human about the arts In A Wounded Innocence Alejandro R Garcia Rivera answers these questions in a series of sketches that are mixed spiritual and theological reflections on various works of art written in a poetic style These reflections explore the relationship between the multi dimensional spiritual and the arts The first sketch The Beginning of Art introduces the rest that go on to explore further the human artistic and theological implications of a wounded innocence Each sketch reflects on a particular human work of art Some are conventional works of art Others may never find their way into a museum but then that is one of the implications coming out of this book A museum does not define what a work of art is its human depth does In these deeply studied yet spiritually written reflections on each work of art it is hoped that the reader will find his and her own creative depth described perhaps even revealed A Wounded Innocence is both inspiring and informative Readers will learn about art spirituality and theology and will find themselves inspired to look at works of art and even to produce a work of art It sets a new way of doing theology that is at the same time spiritual More importantly Garcia Rivera describes a theology of art Chapters are The Beginning of Art The End of Art Human Freedom and Artistic Creativity Heaven with Us The Human Aspect of Atonement The Tyger and the Lamb and A Wounded Innocence Includes black and white art Alejandro R Garcia Rivera PhD is associate professor of systematic theology at the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley The author of numerous articles he also wrote a Catholic Press Association award winning book on theology and aesthetics titled The Community of the Beautiful The Liturgical Press

Differences Ignasi De Sola-Morales, 1997-01-07 Differences brings together ten essays written over the past decade by the distinguished Spanish architect and theorist Ignasi de Sol Morales Differences brings together ten essays written over the past decade by the distinguished Spanish architect and theorist Ignasi de Sola Morales Many of the essays have never previously been translated and the author has provided a new introduction especially for this English edition Contemplating the panorama of contemporary art and architecture de Sola Morales posits that there is no one way to describe today's practice instead he concentrates on elucidating the present dynamic of contrast diversity and tension In an unorthodox pairing de Sola Morales derives his inspiration from both phenomenology and Deleuzean poststructuralism Combining these philosophical inheritances allows him to reinvokethe human subject without referring to classical humanism or announcing the death of the object His retrospective review of the disciplines of art and architecture particularly as they have developed since World War II provokes him to design draft and ultimately build a description of Modernism's lineage of subjectivity The result is a provocative construction of fluid topographies that articulate rather than depict the shaky ground on which our current artistic and architectural production rests The essays Sado masochism Criticism and Architectural Practice
