Norfolk Century:

William Faden and Norfolk's Eighteenth Century Landscape Andrew Macnair, Tom Williamson, 2010-08-24 William Faden's map of Norfolk published in 1797 was one of a large number of surveys of English counties produced in the second half of the eighteenth century. This book with accompanying DVD presents a new digital version of the map and explains how this can be interrogated to produce a wealth of new historical information. It discusses the making of the Norfolk map and Faden's own career within the wider context of the eighteenth century cartographic revolution. It explores what the map and others like it can tell us about contemporary social and economic geography. But it also shows how carefully examined the map can also inform us about the development of the Norfolk landscape in much more remote periods of time. The book includes a digital version of the map on DVD. Andrew Macnair is Research Fellow at the School of History in the University of East Anglia. Tom Williamson is Professor of History and Head of the Landscape Group at the University of East Anglia.
