Normal People Sally Rooney, 2019-04-16 LONGLISTED FOR THE MAN BOOKER PRIZE A wondrously wise genuinely unputdownable new novel from Sally Rooney winner of the 2017 Sunday Times Young Writer of the Year Award at 26 tied with Zadie Smith for the youngest ever recipient the quintessential coming of age love story for our time Connell Waldron is one of the most popular boys in his small town high school he is a star of the football team an excellent student and never wanting for attention from girls The one thing he doesn't have is money Marianne Sheridan a classmate of Connell's has the opposite problem Marianne is plain looking odd and stubborn and while her family is well off she has no friends to speak of There is however a deep and undeniable connection between the two teenagers one that develops into a secret relationship Everything changes when both Connell and Marianne are accepted to Trinity College Suddenly Marianne is well liked and elegant holding court with her intellectual friends while Connell hangs at the sidelines not quite as fluent in language of the elite Throughout their years at university Marianne and Connell circle each other falling in and out of romance but never straying far from where they started And as Marianne experiments with an increasingly dangerous string of boyfriends Connell must decide how far he is willing to go to save his oldest friend Sally Rooney brings her brilliant psychological acuity and perfectly spare prose to a novel that explores the subtleties of class the electricity of first love and the inescapable challenges of family and friendships Normal People is a book that you will read in one sitting and then immediately share with your friends
