Recorded Testimonies of Former Slaves from 17 U.S. States Work Projects Administration, 2017-03-02 Step back in time and meet everyday people from another era. This edition brings to you the complete collection of hundreds of life stories, incredible vivid testimonies of former slaves from 17 U.S. southern states including photos of the people being interviewed and their extraordinary narratives. After the end of Civil War in 1865 more than four million slaves were set free. There were several efforts to record the remembrances of the former slaves. The Federal Writers Project was one such project by the United States federal government to support writers during the Great Depression by asking them to interview and record the myriad stories and experiences of slavery of former slaves. The resulting collection preserved hundreds of life stories from 17 U.S. states that would otherwise have been lost in the din of modernity and America's eagerness to deliberately forget the blot on its recent past.

The Testimonies of Slaves Work Projects Administration, 2023-12-17 In The Testimonies of Slaves, the Work Projects Administration (WPA) presents a compelling compilation of firsthand narratives from former enslaved individuals, illuminating the profound human experiences often obscured by historical abstraction. This work employs a straightforward literary style that juxtaposes raw emotion with stark realities, reflecting the WPA's objective to document, preserve, and share the voices of those who endured centuries of oppression. Contextually aligned with the New Deal era, this anthology emerges as an essential socio-historical artifact unmarred by romanticism, shedding light on the brutalities of slavery and the resilience of the human spirit. The WPA, established during the Great Depression, aimed to provide employment and foster cultural enrichment through an array of projects.
