Don't Look Back John Morton,1992 Cross country skiing is not an exact science author John Morton writes in his preface Even though the sport has been influenced by recent technological changes there are still countless variables that make consistent top performance all but impossible This observation is borne out at the World Cup or Olympic level of international competition where year after year different individuals from various nations emerge as champions As a former Olympian and Olympic coach Morton draws on his firsthand experience to outline what makes a great skier The combination of Conditioning Technique Psychology Health and Nutrition and Equipment and Waxing can make or break an athlete at any level

1960 Winter Olympics, The David C. Antonucci, 2013

The 1960 Olympic Winter Games were a long shot effort that succeeded beyond the wildest expectations Working in a sparsely populated valley in the Sierra Nevada with only rudimentary facilities organizers created a world class Olympic site in four short years For the only time in Olympic history the venues and athlete residence halls were located in a compact intimate setting that encouraged sportsmanship and interaction between athletes There was elaborate pageantry in the ceremonies and decorations The underdog American ice hockey team won the first ever USA gold medal in that sport American figure skaters swept gold in the individual events Well trained Soviet and Scandinavian athletes dominated the speed skating and cross country skiing events American women proved their mettle in the Alpine skiing events German skiers made surprise upsets in the Nordic combined and ski jumping contests And CBS TV was there to capture the most exciting moments and make groundbreaking live broadcasts to American audiences
