Oman Explorer:

Oman Explorer 2001 Alistair Mackenzie,Lucie Cruickshank,2005-11 We Visit Oman Khadija Ejaz,2011 Oman is the land that enchanted Marco Polo It is the country of Sinbad the Sailor of jinns of ancient cities that slumber under the desert sands The foundations of the modern Arab nation of the Sultanate of Oman were laid in 1970 by its monarch and architect His Majesty Sultan Qaboos bin Said bin Taimur al Said under whose watchful eye it reemerged onto the global stage and reclaimed thousands of years of its identity Today Oman is a modern day oasis where the old lives in harmony with the new People flock to its shores from all over the world for the sparkle of its beaches and the generosity of its people The world is still discovering the magic of this ancient Arabian land from the whiff of its legendary frankincense to the hush of its yawning deserts and the sweetness of its sticky halwa Come immerse yourself Oman welcomes you marhaba Oman Diana

Darke,2013 Oman is not merely a desert While it has the classic sand seas Wahiba Sands home to the nomadic Bedouin and their camels this sultanate also boasts lush monsoon soaked valleys near Salalah mountain villages surrounded by green terraced fields of fruit trees and rose bushes and the reef fringed Daymaniyat Islands With such a varied wilderness there is huge scope for adventure Tourism has developed over the last few years and there is an increased emphasis on high end visitors with new luxury spas in hotels like The Chedi The Wave and the Four Seasons in Muscat and the new Marriott in Salalah Large international cruise ships now call for a night or two at Muttrah Muscat harbour and at Salalah in the south Eco awareness is on the rise with many bigger hotels using waste water for garden irrigation and eco luxe tents are growing in popularity for desert and mountain adventure tours The first boutique hotels are opening for small scale tourism to the uninhabited historic villages particularly in the mountains where the high altitude gives cooler climates and greener landscapes with village terracing for agriculture Oman is increasingly perceived as a high end cultural destination The new Opera House has opened directly supported by the Sultan with top notch international performers like Placido Domingo New sections in this edition include advice on property buying since Omani law changed to allow expatriates to buy explaining the rules and regulations There is also a detailed overview of language schools teaching Arabic not found in other guides With advice on cultural etiquette basic Arabic phrases and political history as well as full practical information on where to stay and eat and what to see and do this fully updated edition remains the essential guide for travellers looking to discover the real Oman

The Middle East Unveiled Donna Marsh,2011-06-01 Why did Mr Abdul Rahman Hassan seem uncomfortable when I asked him if his Christian name was Abdul A Many organisations new to the Middle East become very successful many more struggle and some will fail altogether Often the difference between a successful organisation and one that fails is that organisation s level of cultural intelligence Cultural intelligence has never been more important as businesses globalise especially in parts of the world that are very different to markets in the West Cultural and social mistakes can cost businesses dearly Learning how to do business in the Middle East without causing offence is crucial This book provides cultural and practical business intelligence for all Western business people working throughout the Middle East It also focuses on issues specifically important to Western businesswomen as well as for men who might be working with Arab and Muslim women It can make the difference between success and failure for the reader and his or her organisation Surface Environments and Human Interactions Rajat Mazumder,Rajib Shaw,2024-03-12 This book describes the complex interplay between Earth's surface processes erosion and sedimentation and human interactions Intensive as well as extensive research has been undertaken to infer modern sedimentation processes and to infer the mode of stratigraphic sequence building However the effort to understand the influence of sedimentation processes on society and the human impact on sedimentation is long overdue This is a new upcoming multidisciplinary research field that is beyond the scope of leading traditional Earth and Environmental Science journals To fill in the prodigious gap in the knowledge base this book includes in depth reviews and new data based case studies from Asia involving multidisciplinary research It covers case studies of risk management of various hazards and risk management systems at regional national and local levels The book proposes a comprehensive approach to reducing future risks by collaborating with various stakeholders and preparing for the most effective responses towards complicated hazards minimizing social damage This publication will help researchers in the field of Environment and Earth surface processes disaster risk reduction and geoscientists to have a better idea of the current trend of research in the field and will provide updated synthesis on this important topic The Treasures and Pleasures of Dubai, Abu Dhabi, and Oman, and Yemen Ronald L. Krannich,2009 The Middle East ,2006 Global

Neoproterozoic Petroleum Systems Jonathan Craig,2009 Worldwide Neoproterozoic successions are major hydrocarbon producers In North Africa large basins with significant surface outcrops and thick sedimentary fills are widespread These basins are now emerging as potential sources of hydrocarbons and are attracting interest both from geological researchers and the oil and gas industry This volume focuses on recent developments in the understanding and correlation of North African basin fills and explores novel approaches to prospecting for source and reservoir rocks The papers cover aspects of petroleum prospectivity and age equivalent global petroleum systems Neoproterozoic tectonics and palaeogeography sequence stratigraphy glacial events and global climatic models faunal and floral evolution and the deposition of early source rocks The broader aim is to compare with and learn from well studied Neoproterozoic successions globally including major environmental change the emergence of life the global carbon cycle and implications for hydrocarbon exploration
