From the award-winning author of Faith Seventy Times Seven and Adversity Keeping the Faith comes Book 1 in the Omega Chronicles. Omega: The Lost City of Altinova. Come follow the adventurers' quest to find the sister cities in the Atlantic Ocean. The lost cities of Atlantis and Altinova have captivated mankind throughout all walks of life. While there have been many books written about Atlantis, this is the first put in writing about the sister city Altinova. The ancient Greek philosopher Plato was the first to mention Atlantis. Many people insist the lost city story is based on a real historical disaster. Professor Knight intends to prove such a city exists and find the city of Altinova at the same time. The educator takes on his journey Norman Clark and Dolphus Slaton to discover answers to on another faded-out map found in the archives in the campus library at the University of Texas. In these archives buried in a wrong section of writings Professor Knight read The founders of Altinova were half god and half human. They created a utopian civilization and became a great naval power. There is a great capital. The page was torn off and nothing further was found. From this writing the quest began for the search for The Lost City of Altinova.
