On All Sides Nowhere William Gruber,2002 When Bill Gruber left Philadelphia for graduate school in Idaho he and his wife decided to experience true rural living His longing for the solitude and natural beauty that Thoreau found on Walden Pond led him to buy an abandoned log cabin and its surrounding forty acres in Alder Creek a town considered small even by Idaho standards But farm living was far from the bucolic wonderland he expected he now had to rise with the sun to finish strenuous chores cope with the lack of modern conveniences and shed his urban pretensions to become a real local Despite the initial hardships he came to realize that reality was far better than his wistful fantasies Instead of solitude he found a warm welcoming community instead of rural stolidity he found intelligence and wisdom instead of relaxation he found satisfaction in working the land What began as a two year experiment became a seven year love affair with a town he ll always consider home
