On Being Foreign Culture Shock In Short Fiction:

On Being Foreign Tom J. Lewis, Robert E. Jungman, 1986 A selection of short stories by such authors as Albert Camus Jorge Luis Borges Jane Bowles Joseph Conrad Stephen Crane Hermann Hesse Rudyard Kipling and Katherine Mansfield They lead the reader through the stages of cross cultural adjustment and provide insights into the psyche of the foreigner The work is designed as a text in advanced English as a second language in world literature courses and for intercultural studies

Studies in Short Fiction, 1990 Annotated Bibliography of Culture-general Sources for Cross-cultural Training Janey Trowbridge, Sally Walton, 1987 Immigrant Generations, Media Representations, and Audiences Omotayo O.

Banjo, 2021-09-27 This anthology examines how immigrants and their US born children use media to negotiate their American identity and how audiences engage with mediated narratives about the immigrant experience cultural adjustments language use and the like Where this work diverges from other collections and monographs is the area is its intentional focus on how both first and second generation Americans complex identities and hybrid cultures interact with mediated narratives in general alongside the extent to which these narratives reflect their experience In a three part structure the collection examines representations zooms in to explore the reception of these narratives through autoethnographic essays and concludes in a section of analysis and critique of specific media

Teaching English as a Foreign Or Second Language,

Second Edition Jerry G. Gebhard, 2006-01-10 Teaching English as a Foreign or Second Language Second Edition is designed for those new to ESL EFL teaching and for self motivated teachers who seek to maximize their potential and enhance the learning of their students This guide provides basic information that ESL EFL teachers should know before they start teaching and many ideas on how to guide students in the skills of listening speaking reading and writing It stresses the multifaceted nature of teaching the English language to non native speakers and is based on the real experiences of teachers The second edition of Teaching English as a Foreign or Second Language includes a wider range of examples to coincide with a variety of teaching contexts from K 12 schools to university intensive language programs and refugee programs It is also updated with discussions of technology throughout and it considers ways in which technology can be used in teaching language skills Sources for further study are included in each chapter and in the appendixes

Strangers at Home Carolyn D. Smith,1996 Managing Cultural Differences Philip Robert Harris,Robert T. Moran,1991 It clearly shows how to develop the cross cultural expertise essential to succeed in a world of rapid and profound economic political and cultural changes While retaining the wisdom of the previous editions this new edition provides leading edge insights into work culture and globalization Living with Strangers in the U.S.A. Carol M. Archer,1991 A cross cultural text which present a new and personal way to the presentation of cultural values and behaviour plus the ability to improve reading skills and vocabulary development Using authentic materials from differing cultures language is used to help students to cross cultural barriers A Select Guide to Area Studies Resources L. Robert Kohls,V. Lynn Tyler,1988

Foregrounding Ethical Awareness in Composition and English Studies Sheryl I. Fontaine,Susan Hunter,1998 This collection of essays is the first sustained look at the emerging ethical concerns in composition and English studies Unlike other works that may have used ethics as a way to set a particular code of conduct or to examine a particular area of study this book describes a range of situations obliging us to reevaluate the ethical systems that we have previously accepted Fontaine and Hunter have organized the essays into conceptual sections that focus on three of the many ways in which our current situations can be reconsidered In the first section Reevaluating Contemporary Pedagogies the authors identify ethical problems that arise within some of our most widely accepted pedagogical strategies and perspectives Competing Obligations refers to the ethical problems that emerge as teachers and administrators find themselves faced with allegiances to more than one group and more than one vision in the academy And the authors in Professional Evolutions consider ways in which developments and changes in the world outside the English department create ethical conflicts close to home Together these essays provide ethical vantage points from which it is incumbent upon us to view our agency in our profession and in our classrooms The book s wide range of voices and perspectives helps us begin to understand our own personal and professional ethical awareness and to anticipate the issues we all must face     International Journal of Anthropology ,1994

Understanding ESL Writers Ilona Leki,1992 Understanding ESL Writers A Guide for Teachers responds to the overwhelming concern non ESL faculty have expressed with the influx of ESL students into their classes     The Relationship of Social and Psychological Distance on the Acquisition of Spanish in Italian Immigrants Living in Argentina Kathy Sue Leonard,1991     Intercultural Friendship Elisabeth Gareis,1995 Elisabeth Gareis breaks new ground in her study of intercultural friendships She probes the scantily researched subject of friendship to report on the nature of relations between foreigners and Americans in the United States The approach is descriptive using data derived from an extensive review of literature questionnaires and in depth interviews Participants in the study were 15 unmarried graduate students from Germany India and Taiwan who had been in the U S for at least one year From her study Gareis concludes that cultural background is much less significant for the successful development of intercultural friendships than might be expected The investigative results show that other factors play a more important role in developing strong intercultural friendships These factors include individual personality level of confidence the meaning attached to the concept of friendship and general cultural expectations As the only book of its kind to exist in the market Intercultural Friendships will enlighten students and teachers of intercultural communication classes counselors working with foreign students and cross cultural leaders It will prove indispensable to foreign students in the U S and U S citizens working or studying abroad     Ariel ,1987
