On Communitarian Divinity An African Interpretation Of The Trinity:

On Communitarian Divinity A. Okechukwu Ogbonnaya,1994 Ogbonnaya challenges the view that the African concept of deity is either mono or poly theistic and proposes communalism as the foundational principle for African divinity. He describes African cosmology and examines Tertullian's idea of the Trinity concluding that the African worldview is communitarian and the African god communal in nature. Stories from the Fireplace Tekletsadik Belachew,2020-12-22 This book is an interdisciplinary theological exploration of Haile Gerima's cinema an Ethiopian filmmaker and storyteller who successfully translated African folkloric orality and wove other indigenous art forms into the language of cinema. Gerima's five decades legacy of Pan African cinema embodies symbolic resistance against Afro pessimistic and stereotypical misrepresentations both manifestations of neo colonialism. In response he uses camera as a weapon to resist exotic otherness and alienation invented by conventional cinema. Through an alternative moving pictures he depicted dignified images of Africa towards decolonising cinema and liberating the mind. His memory films achieves archiving the stories of the people of African descent. Gerima who stands in par with great African film griots such as Ousmane Sembne the father of African cinema and Med Hondo deserves further interdisciplinary reflections. Gerima's Triangular cinema and imperfect cinema are inspired from indigenous values and cultural products such as holy icons and fireplace stories. His works foster asserting identity of the self maintaining the right to difference and embracing ubuntu like human personhood. They are essential acts in the 21st century. Like theology cinema alters a way of life human experiences imaginations and narrative identity. This book engages with the works and thoughts of Gerima towards re imaging Africa through cinematic narratives in being and becoming an African.

The Cambridge History of Ancient Christianity Bruce W. Longenecker,David E. Wilhite,2023-08-24 The first three hundred years of the common era witnessed critical developments that would become foundational for Christianity itself as well as for the societies and later history that emerged thereafter. The concept of ancient Christianity however along with the content that the category represents has raised much debate. This is in part because within this category lie multiple forms of devotion to Jesus Christ multiple phenomena and multiple permutations in the formative period of Christian history. Within those multiples lie numerous contests as varieties of Christian identity laid claim to authority and authenticity in different ways. The Cambridge History of Ancient Christianity addresses these contested areas with both nuance and clarity by reviewing synthesizing and critically engaging recent scholarly developments. The 27 thematic chapters specially commissioned for this volume from an international team of scholars also offer constructive ways forward for future research.

Leadership and Authority Titre Ande,2011-06-01 This book proposes that Christian theology in Africa can have a significant impact if a critical understanding of the socio political situation in contemporary Africa is taken seriously. The Christian leadership in post colonial Africa has cloned its understanding and use of authority on the Bula Matari model which issued from the brutality of colonialism and political absolutism in post colonial Africa. This model has caused many problems in churches including dysfunction conflicts division and lack of prophetic ministry The book proposes that Life Community ecclesiology can liberate authority where leadership is a function not a status and apostolic succession belongs to all the people of God This is a superb book on leadership which has implications for all in church leadership beyond the Congo Ande analyzes how church leadership has often mimicked secular models in an unhelpful way He critiques the use of power and privilege and offers an alternative model of life community ecclesiology This is an informative instructive and compelling read Cathy Ross J V Taylor Fellow in Missiology Oxford University Manager Crowther Centre for Mission Education CMS Dr Ande s book is a very important addition to the history of Christianity in the eastern Congo Democratic Republic His careful study of the growth of the Anglican church in Boga and Aru clearly and vividly explores the different dynamics of church growth in these two areas He is sensitive to the differing ways in which Ugandan Anglicanism has provided models for the development of the church in Congo by a study both of the original evangelism from Buganda associated with Apolo Kivebulaya in Boga and the more recent impact of Revivalist Christianity mediated through the West Nile during times of political confusion in both countries The historical material is used with great insight to develop a constructive theology of power and authority in the church and to critique existing structures of clerical and episcopal power Kevin Ward Senior Lecturer Department of Theology and Religious Studies University of Leeds Rt Rev Dr Titre Ande Georges Congolese is currently the Anglican Bishop of the Diocese of Aru Democratic Republic of Congo He is a former principal of the Anglican Theological College IStHA at Bunia and still lectures at the college He has a PhD from the University of Birmingham The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions, Volume V Mark P. Hutchinson, 2018-10-18 The five volume Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in Britain and Ireland as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and Royal Supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond Britain and Ireland and also analyses newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier British and Irish dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent of ecclesiastical organizations The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions Volume V follows the spatial cultural and intellectual changes in dissenting identity and practice in the twentieth century as these once European traditions globalized While in Europe dissent was often against the religious state dissent in a globalizing world could redefine itself against colonialism or other secular and religious monopolies The contributors trace the encounters of dissenting Protestant traditions with modernity and globalization changing imperial politics challenges to biblical denominational and pastoral authority local cultures and languages and some of the century s major themes such as race and gender new technologies and organizational change In so doing they identify a vast array of local and globalizing illustrations which will enliven conversations about the role of religion and in particular Christianity Global Dictionary of Theology William A. Dyrness, Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2009-10-25 Theological dictionaries are foundational to any theological library But until now there has been no Global Dictionary of Theology a theological dictionary that presumes the contribution of the Western tradition but moves beyond it to embrace and explore a full range of global expressions of theology The Global Dictionary of Theology is inspired by the shift of the center of Christianity from the West to the Global South But it also reflects the increase in two way traffic between these two sectors as well as the global awareness that has permeated popular culture to an unprecedented degree The editorial perspective of the Global Dictionary of Theology is an ecumenical evangelicalism that is receptive to discovering new facets of truth through listening and conversation on a global scale Thus a distinctive feature of the Global Dictionary of Theology is its conversational approach Contributors have been called on to write in the spirit of engaging in a larger theological conversation in which alternative views are expected and invited William A Dyrness Veli Matti Kärkkäinen Juan F Martinez and Simon Chan edit approximately 250 articles written by over 100 contributors representing the global spectrum of theological perspectives Pastors theological teachers theological students and lay Christian leaders will all find the Global Dictionary of Theology to be a resource that unfolds new dimensions and reveals new panoramas of theological perspective and inquiry Here is a new launching point for doing theology in today's global context

Being the Church in the Midst of Empire Karen L. Bloomquist, 2007 Against the backdrop of a general sense of what empire entails the purpose of this book is to engage in some constructive theological reflection Empire refers to various interrelated processes of domination and their effects that are in tension with biblical visions for life in community There are countless effects and crucial ethical issues raised by empire especially in economic and political terms But it also poses deeply theological challenges because of how all encompassing empire becomes permeating how we think about ourselves and others our world our hopes and our desires This book presupposes that the publicly embodied identity or being of the church in the midst of empire is fundamentally rooted in the life of the Triune God From this Trinitarian perspective the writers develop theological responses that have the potential to counter transform and nurture long term reform of empire especially in and through communities of faith

Pastoral Care from a Third World Perspective Tapiwa N. Mucherera, 2001 The advent and approach of colonization and Christianity condemned the African traditional religion and culture as paganistic and backward This created issues of bi culturalism and bi religiousness in personal and religious identity that the church needs to address For those living in most post colonial countries there is the existence of deep psychological and spiritual scars that need healing The Western Christian rituals in use in most African mainline churches exclude any traditional religious rituals A new pastoral theology of care and psychodynamic understanding of integrative consciousness is needed in these contexts A pastoral care giver with integrative consciousness possessing an awareness of both the traditional and Western worldview and or integration thereof is required to address the psychological and religious identity conflict existing in post colonial contexts such as Zimbabwe

Christian Histories, Christian Traditioning Dale T. Irvin,1998 Christian Histories Christian Traditioning provides a profound historical theological and constructive reading of Christian plurality Dale T Irvin grapples with the many traditions within the Christian tradition to show how plurality bears witness to a core tradition even as it subverts the claims of Western Christianity to be its sole normative expression The voices of emerging churches like those that resound through the centuries from long eclipsed churches in Persia Mesopotamia India Ethiopia and China together testify to Jesus as the Christ But they do so in ways that show that non Western traditions constitute an integral part of the mainstream while showing the need for Euro American tradition to give up its normative pretenses BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by
