

He loves us. On our own terms. He treats us as equals to the men around him; he listens; he does not belittle; he honors us; he challenges us; he teaches us; he includes us – calls us all beloved. Gloriously, this flies in the face of the cultural expectations of his time – and even our own time.

A Jongleur Strayed: Verses on Love and Other Matters Sacred and Profane Richard Le Gallienne, 2024-02-26 A Jongleur Strayed Verses on Love and Other Matters Sacred and Profane by Richard Le Gallienne is a collection of poems that explore the multifaceted nature of love and the human experience. The anthology is divided into several sections each delving into different themes such as the timelessness of love, the beauty of nature and the philosophical musings on life and existence. The poems are characterized by their lyrical quality and rich imagery often drawing on classical references and mythological allusions to convey deeper meanings. Le Gallienne's work reflects a deep appreciation for the natural world as seen in poems like The Gardens of Adonis and Nature the Healer where he celebrates the cyclical nature of life and the healing power of nature. The collection also includes reflections on personal relationships as in The Faithful Lover and Love's Tenderness where the poet examines the complexities and enduring qualities of love. Additionally, the poems touch on themes of loss and longing as well as the passage of time, inviting readers to contemplate the transient yet profound moments of life. Through his eloquent and evocative verse, Le Gallienne captures the essence of human emotions and the eternal quest for beauty and meaning.
