Ramsey,2015-12 In Stealing Puget Sound 1832 1869 Ramsey exposes the little know political tension between the first British settlers and the Americans who crossed the Oregon Trail fifteen years later The British legal ownership of the precious land in the Puget Sound region was confirmed by international treaty The well known Pig War was a direct result of the squeeze aggressive American settlers put on the British owners Ramsey uses primary source letters and journals plus some secondary materials to document and reference historical accuracy The book remains comfortably readable but challenges politically correct history      Types of Canoes on Puget Sound Thomas Talbot Waterman,Geraldine Coffin,1920      Pioneer Days on Puget Sound Arthur Armstrong Denny,1888      Governing Puget Sound Robert L.
