Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet, 1850 On Repentance Pinchas H. Peli, 2000-05-01 For five decades prior to his death in 1993 Rabbi Joseph Dov Soloveitchik was the unchallenged leader of modern Orthodox Judaism in the United States His understanding of both traditional Judaism and secular philosophy shaped two generations of rabbinic students at Yeshiva University and charted a new course for American Orthodox Jews In On Repentance noted scholar Pinchas Peli has gathered the major points of Rabbi Soloveitchik's teachings on teshuvah repentance based on the annual series of lectures on the theme of teshuvah presented on the anniversary of his father's death For many Jews these lectures were the major academic and intellectual event of the year Outside of his followers however few were able to experience the genius of Rabbi Soloveitchik He gave his lectures in Yiddish and generally refused to publish Now readers can experience the brilliant thinking of this great teacher and sage On Repentance Joseph B. Soloveitchik, 2017-08-17 The subject of repentance or teshuvah captivated Rabbi Soloveitchik's imagination and it is easy to understand why As a transformation of the personality in response to the divine will teshuvah uncovers the depths of human nature and of man's relationship with God In addressing repentance Rabbi Soloveitchik confronted questions such as Can a person change Is one's personality static or dynamic What is the relationship between reason and emotion between sin and suffering between guilt and growth past and future free will and causality How is one to approach God with love or fear as an individual or as part of a community appealing to grace or justice with a sense of self nullification or self worth Given the issues raised it is no wonder that some of Rabbi Soloveitchik's most religiously powerful and psychologically penetrating insights appear in his discussions of repentance This classic volume speaks to the sensitive and searching soul not just during the days of penitence but throughout the entire year Book jacket An Essay on Repentance R. W.,1820 About Repentance St. Maximus the Confessor,St. Amphilius of Iconium,St. John Chrysostom,St. Tikhon of Zadonsk (Sokolov),St. Ambrose of Milan, Wealth without work Pleasure without conscience Science without humanity Knowledge without character Politics without principle Commerce without morality Worship without sacrifice <https://vidjambov.blogspot.com/2023/01/book-inventory-vladimir-djambov-talmach.html> As long as our mind is indignant from sin we cannot hope for forgiveness until then for we have not yet created fruits worthy of repentance The fruit of repentance is the passionlessness of the soul and passionlessness is the cleansing of sins So I implore let us labor in spiritual ascetic labors let us enslave the body to labors and ascetic labors of the spirit so that with much diligence and effort having gathered for ourselves in a way that is good and profitable we will pass to an endless life in Christ Jesus our Lord Warn the outcome of the soul by repentance and correction so that when death comes all the medicine of repentance will no longer be powerless because only on earth does repentance have power but in hell it is already powerless always remember that you bear the title of a servant of God on yourself and in every possible way as far as possible by human strength try to act worthy of this title in everything God the Gracious Helper of all seeing your efforts will help you and what seemed to you painful you will feel easy with the help of God and gaining a habit Let us take the earth as an example when it is not plowed then it seems empty it seems that it dies with its fruits however it does not lose its own juice like a certain soul When it is again processed and seeds are sown on it it becomes more fruitful So it is not surprising that our flesh as said is exhausted For this exhaustion is all the more a taming and not annihilation So we have seen that we should bring repentance and bring it at the time when the flame of sin ceases to burn in us We have seen that during the captivity of sin we must be most reverent and not stealers For when it is said to Moses who wishes to draw nearer to draw nearer to the knowledge of the heavenly mystery when I say to Moses Take off your sandals off your feet then all the more must we free the feet of our soul from the bonds of the body and free our groans from union with the world It is impossible for men to see God upon Whom the orders of Angels dare not gaze But through thee O all pure one did the Word incarnate appear to men and with the Heavenly Hosts we magnify Him and thee we call blessed Have mercy on me O God have mercy on me

Enter upon repentance for now shall salvation approach the nations the Lord that is bringing salvation according to God s promise To Him John as His harbinger directed the repentance which he preached whose province was the purging of men s minds that whatever defilement inveterate error had imparted whatever contamination in the heart of man ignorance had engendered that repentance should sweep and scrape away and cast out of doors and thus prepare the home of the heart by making it clean for the Holy Spirit Tertullian
