The Oracle Sequence: The Oracle Catherine Fisher, 2010-10-07 In the distant land of deserts and islands, the servants of the god rule the land. His wishes are conveyed through the Oracle and interpreted by the High Priestess. Mirany is the new Bearer, afraid of her perilous duties for the god in the rituals of the Oracle and fearful of her secret questioning. Does the god truly exist? The priestess is corrupt and in secret partnership with the General ruler since the God on Earth is the Archon. He has no real power chosen as a child; his face is always masked, never seen by outsiders. Should any national tragedy occur, he is also the sacrifice. When the old Archon dies, his spirit migrates into a child and there are several candidates for succession. But Mirany begins to experience the real visions of the god; she discovers which child is the rightful heir and that the General and High Priestess intend to choose another child and seize power. With only a tomb robbing scribe and a mad musician for allies, Mirany begins her quest knowing that if she is
