Orchestra Left Row T:

Orchestra Left, Row T Carl Constein, 2001-07      Musical Observer, 1922      The Hollywood Romance Series: Books 1-4 Kenneth Rosenberg, 2020-08-29 There's always something going on at the Hollywood Sunset Apartments. After all, this is the town where dreams are made. The Hollywood Romance Series follows the lives and loves of the building's residents from young actress Bridget to the aspiring singer Amanda. From the feisty artist Piper to the celebrity attorney Samantha. This boxed set includes all four volumes in the series including The Extra, A Hollywood Romance, Bachelor Number Five, Bachelor Number Nine, The Art of Love.      Broadway for Beginners Brian Guy, 2025-12-26 Broadway for Beginners is the practical guide for anyone seeing live theatre in New York City for the first time or the first time in a while and wanting it to feel easy, not stressful. This book walks you through the decisions that matter most: what to see, how to buy tickets without getting scammed, where to sit, and how to avoid common tourist mistakes that can cost you time and money. Inside you'll learn how to buy from the official box office and avoid excessive fees, how to find legitimate discounts and promotions, seat-picking strategies to get the best value for your budget, when to arrive, what door hold means if you're late, and how some shows actually start before the stated curtain time. The intermission restroom strategy because 15 minutes goes fast. Simple etiquette rules that keep you and everyone around you from having a bad experience. Stage door basics: what to expect, how to be respectful, and how autographs usually work. Written by Broadway insider Brian Guy, a musical theatre co-producer who attended 80 Broadway, Off Broadway, and regional shows in 2025.      Jacob's Band Monthly, 1929      Manuscript Missing Carl Frey Constein, 2006-10-19 Kent and Angie Rowen have everything going for them: popular good jobs, happy children, and grandchildren, prominent parents. They are the last couple the people of Newbridge would expect to have a midlife crisis. Trouble on paradise begins when Kent, a successful insurance agent, decides to follow his Walter Mitty dream of becoming an author. Not content with one published novel, he is at work on a second, With Hoops of Steel. Night after night, he secludes himself in his den, slaving away feverishly at his laptop, neglecting his wife. He is a chapter shy of finishing the manuscript when the sky falls: his laptop and backup CD are stolen. He sinks into a major life event depression. No one in the family is spared the grief. His psychotherapist is about to recommend new and dangerous deep brain surgery when there's word that With Hoops of Steel has been spotted in the bookstore. Will this push Kent deeper into his black hole, or will it put him on the road to recovery? But how can he prove the book is his? Hmm. His professor friend Scott Navano knows. The turn of the millennium seemed to me as good a time as any to leave behind a lifetime of nose-to-the-grindstone adventures as WWII pilot, English teacher, and school superintendent in order to chase my favorite phantom: becoming an author. In the first scene of Manuscript Missing, we get an early hint of how devastated amateur writer Kent Rowen would become if somehow his manuscript disappeared. Guess what? It happens. I hasten to mention that Angie, his wife, is also missing. We watch as the Rowens and their families cope with the crisis. We empathize with Kent and Angie in their deep depression, loneliness, and utter despair We follow other characters chasing their phantoms some similar by coincidence I m sure to may own We watch
