Order Of Coincidence:

Proceedings of the international congress held in Toronto, August 11-16... Toronto International mathematical congress, 1928    Time, Causality, and the Quantum Theory S. Mehlberg, 2012-12-06 An intermittent but mentally quite disabling illness prevented Henry Mehlberg from becoming recognized more widely as the formidable scholar he was when at his best During World War II he had lived in hiding under the false identity of an egg farmer when the Nazis occupied his native Poland After relatively short academic appointments at the University of Toronto and at Princeton University he taught at the University of Chicago until reaching the age of normal retirement But partly at the initiative of his Chicago colleague Charles Morris who had preceded him to a post retirement professorship at the University of Florida in Gainesville and with the support of Eugene Wigner he then received an appointment at that University where he remained until his death in 1979 In Chicago he organized a discussion group of scholars from that area as a kind of small scale model of the Vienna Circle which met at his apartment where he lived with his first wife Janina a mathematician It was during this Chicago period that the functional disturbances from his illness were pronounced and not infrequent The very unfortunate result was that colleagues who had no prior knowledge of the caliber of his writings in Polish and French or of his very considerable intellectual powers had little incentive to read his published work which he had begun to write in English

Molecular Theory of the Living Cell Sungchul Ji, 2012-04-05 The book presents the first comprehensive molecular theory of the living cell ever published since the cell doctrine was formulated in 1838 1839 It introduces into cell biology over thirty key concepts principles and laws imported from physics chemistry computer science linguistics semiotics and philosophy The author formulates physically chemically and enzymologically realistic molecular mechanisms to account for basic living processes such as ligand receptor interactions enzymic catalysis force generating mechanisms in molecular motors chromatin remodelling and signal transduction Possible solutions to basic and practical problems facing contemporary biology and biomedical sciences have been suggested including pharmacotherapeutics and personalized medicine

Proceedings of the Royal Society of Canada Royal Society of Canada, 1914    Understanding Evil, 2003-01-01 Written across the disciplines of law literature philosophy and theology Understanding Evil An Interdisciplinary Approach represents wide ranging approaches to and understandings of evil and wickedness Consisting of three sections Grappling with Evil Justice Responsibility and War and Blame Murder and Retributivism all the essays are interdisciplinary and multi disciplinary in focus Common themes emerge around the dominant narrative movements of grieving loss powerlessness and retribution that have shaped so many political and cultural issues around the world since the fall of 2001 At the same time the interdisciplinary nature of this collection together with the divergent views of its chapters reminds one that in the end an inquiry into evil and wickedness is at its best when it promotes intelligence and compassion creativity and cooperation The thirteen essays are originally presented at and then developed in light of dialogues held at the Third Global Conference on
