Lukacs Last Autocriticism The Ontology:

Lukács's Last Autocriticism, the Ontology Ernest Joós, 1983 Lukács Today I Rockmore, 2012-12-06 As this century nears an end it has become increasingly clear that Georg Lukacs is one of the most talented intellectuals of our time not only in the Marxist tradition but in general Lukacs name is well known and his views are increasingly attracting attention but it cannot be said that his thought has so far been widely studied or that it has been studied to the degree its place in the Marxist tradition warrants or its intrinsic interest demands In the relatively short period since Lukacs death there have been a number of books and many articles devoted to his work But despite some efforts in that direction there is still no adequate treatment of his work as a whole surely a formidable task If as I believe Lukacs is the most important Marxist philosopher since Marx and one of the most influential intellectual figures of this century then surely his ideas are worth scrutinizing frequently and in detail This is not the place to provide a general description either of Lukacs life or of his work Descriptions of his life especially his early career are widely available For present purposes it will suffice to provide only the barest mention of some biographical facts together with a brief account of some items in his bibliography Georg Lukacs Reconsidered Michael Thompson, 2011-04-07 An international team of contributors explore contemporary insights into the work of Georg Lukacs in political theory aesthetics ethics and social and cultural theory Prolegomena to Any Future Materialism Adrian Johnston, 2019-09-15 Adrian Johnston s trilogy Prolegomena to Any Future Materialism aims to forge a thoroughly materialist yet antireductive theory of subjectivity In this second volume A Weak Nature Alone Johnston focuses on the philosophy of nature required for such a theory This volume is guided by a fundamental question How must nature be rethought so that human minds and freedom do not appear to be either impossible or inexplicable within it Asked differently How must the natural world itself be structured such that sapient subjects in all their distinctive peculiarities emerged from and continue to exist within this world In A Weak Nature Alone Johnston develops his transcendental materialist account of nature through engaging with and weaving together five main sources of inspiration Hegelian philosophy Marxist materialism Freudian Lacanian metapsychology Anglo American analytic neo Hegelianism and evolutionary theory and neurobiology Johnston argues that these seemingly but not really strange bedfellows should be brought together so as to construct a contemporary ontology of nature Through this ontology nonnatural human subjects can be seen to arise in an immanent bottom up fashion from nature itself Georg Lukacs Joan Nordquist, 1988 A bibliography of books and articles by and about Georg Lukacs Georg Lukács's Political Aesthetics and Domination Partisanship Victor Zitta, 1991

Dialogue with Heidegger on Values Ernest Joós, 1991 The author s dialogue with Heidegger leads to the positing of his thesis Heidegger s Sein und Zeit and his Vom Wesen des Grundes The Essence of Reason contain a philosophical anthropology whose essential feature is the rehabilitation of the senses as means of knowing Indeed Heidegger s method would then lead to the same sort of conceptualization he himself condemns if Dasein does not see the meanings of entities in the concrete Such seeing is the seeing of the degrees of meaning of an individual entity Meaning then becomes the measure of values manifested in the World s Worlding The author calls this turning of Heidegger to the ontological realm for the standard of values rather than to the ontic realm of science the Third Copernican Revolution Ultimate Reality and Meaning ,1990 Thinkers of the Twentieth Century Roland Turner,1987 Major thinkers in various intellectual disciplines are featured in Thinkers of the Twentieth Century Your patrons will find this guide a perfect start to their studies on 450 intellectuals from philosophy theology literary criticism aesthetics history social sciences politics and the sciences Entries are divided into two parts Part One includes a biography complete bibliography and reading list of the major books and articles written about the entrant Part Two consists of an extended 1 000 to 3 000 word essay on the entrant These essays explain in clear comprehensible language the work of the entrant and his her influence on the intellectual of the 20th century Twentieth-century Eastern European Writers Steven Serafin,1999 Intentionality, Source of Intelligibility Ernest Joós,1989 Throughout the work the author pursues one objective to show that intentionality belongs to the fabric of reality hence it is also the source of the intelligibility of this reality As such it has an ontological status and a causality of its own which enables it to play its role as intermediary between the knowing subject and the object of thought This interdependence is responsible for its nature and the two way movement expressed by intentio intellectus and intentio rei whose efficacy widens or reduces the scope of what is considered as intelligible by a philosophical doctrine The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books, 1986 to 1987 British Library,1988 Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,1984 International Studies in Philosophy ,1986 International Philosophical Quarterly ,1983 The Journal of Philosophy ,1984 Covers topics in philosophy psychology and scientific methods Vols 31 include A Bibliography of philosophy 1933 Centenario Fortunata y Jacinta, La madre naturaleza John W.
