Luke-Acts Ernest Pennells, 2003 This study breaks fresh ground for understanding Luke Acts with a series of propositions Luke s literary architecture reflects the style of rabbinic debate frequently visible in the Gospels Luke s birth narratives are a tour de force of bellicose nationalism that is countered rabbinic style by a portrayal of Jesus crucified and risen as God s Anointed John the Baptist was a priest who renounced his birthright because Yahweh had abandoned the Temple The mission of seventy was an overt political challenge to the Sanhedrin numbering seventy which is given shape by dominical discourses en route to Jerusalem Zacchaeus represents a festering cause c l bre His acceptance demonstrate that Jesus was not challenging Rome Jerusalem s temple becomes a focal point for controversy in Acts which is why Luke s Gospel starts and ends in that setting Stephen s diatribe against the leaders of Israel and their temple is the centrepiece of Acts Luke Acts argues that neither Jesus of Nazareth nor Saul of Tarsus challenged Rome The principal antagonists of John Jesus the disciples Stephen and Paul were corrupt leaders of Israel This innovative exposition of Luke s narrative is written for non specialists but draws heavily upon scholarly literature It challenges customary exegesis and questions the anti imperialist agenda which flavours many political readings of the Gospels because that diverts attention away from the root cause of oppression clearly identified by Jesus of Nazareth in Luke s Gospel as the same economic blight that remains a primary barrier to poverty alleviation in the modern world

The Monotheists: Jews, Christians, and Muslims in Conflict and Competition, Volume I F. E. Peters, 2009-04-11 The world's three great monotheistic religions have spent most of their historical careers in conflict or competition with each other And yet in fact they sprung from the same spiritual roots and have been nurtured in the same historical soil This book an extraordinarily comprehensive and approachable comparative introduction to these religions seeks not so much to demonstrate the truth of this thesis as to illustrate it Frank Peters one of the world's foremost experts on the monotheistic faiths takes Judaism Christianity and Islam and after briefly tracing the roots of each places them side by side to show both their similarities and their differences Volume I The Peoples of God tells the story of the foundation and formation of the three monotheistic communities of their visible historical presence Volume II The Words and Will of God is devoted to their inner life the spirit that animates and regulates them Peters takes us to where these religions live their scriptures laws institutions and intentions how each seeks to worship God and achieve salvation and how they deal with their own orthodox and heterodox and with others the goyim the pagans the infidels Throughout he measures but never judges one religion against the other The prose is supple the method rigorous This is a remarkably cohesive informative and accessible narrative reflecting a lifetime of study by a single recognized authority in all three fields The Monotheists is a magisterial comparison for students and general readers as well as scholars of the parties to one of the most troubling issues of today the fierce sometimes productive and often destructive competition among the world's monotheists the siblings called Jews Christians and Muslims Journal of the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis, 1920 Journal of Biblical Literature, 1920

Leadership and Lifestyle Steve Walton, 2000-08-03 This study contributes to debate about the portraits of Paul in Acts and his epistles by considering Paul's Miletus speech Acts 20:18b-35 and identifies and compares major themes in Luke and Paul's views of Christian leadership Comparisons with Jesus' speeches in Luke show how Lukan the speech is and with 1 Thessalonians how Pauline it is The speech calls the Ephesian elders to service after Paul's departure to Jerusalem focusing on faithful fulfilment of leadership responsibility suffering attitudes to wealth and work and the death of Jesus Paul models Christian leadership for the elders Parallels in Luke highlight his view of Christian leadership modelled by Jesus and taught to his disciples and modelled by Paul and taught to the elders Study of 1 Thessalonians identifies a remarkably similar portrait of Christian leadership The Miletus speech is close in thought presentation and vocabulary to an early indubitably Pauline letter Conflict and Authority in Luke 19:47 to 21:4 Blake R. Grangaard, 1999 Conflict and Authority in Luke 19:47 to 21:4 examines Luke's account of a verbal confrontation between Jesus and the religious leaders of Jerusalem Professor Grangaard analyzes the role of this passage within the larger narrative and illuminates Luke's presentation of the teachings of Jesus on such topics as the payment of taxes to Caesar the nature of life in the Resurrection and the relationship of the Messiah to David This confrontation over Jesus' authority provides a narrative transition between Jesus' ministry and journey 4 14 19 46 and the events of his Passion 22 1 24 53 while preparing the way for the climax of the story Joel's Use of Scripture and the Scripture's Use of Joel John Strazicich, 2007-04-30 The methodological approach employed in this research utilizes the hermeneutics of comparative midrash combined with aspects of Bakhtinian dialogism and intertextuality The purpose of this enterprise is to discern the function of scripture in Joel and its New Testament Nachleben The terms appropriation and resignification are descriptive of the process through which an antecedent text is transformed by its displacement condensation and recontextualization These methodologies assist in giving an account of the intertextual dialogism involved in a text's unrecorded hermeneutics The scope of the work looks at the use of scriptural traditions within the book of Joel during the Second Temple period There is an introduction to the hermeneutical methods employed followed by a general introduction to the book of Joel in chapter one Chapters two and three concern the function of scripture in Joel Finally the last chapter deals with Joel's New Testament Nachleben Each chapter has an introduction and conclusion This work does not eschew the importance of diachronic issues The diachronic method pays attention to the context of an antecedent's voice while the synchronic methodological approach pays attention to the function and purpose in which the receptor text resignifies the appropriated motifs and allusions The diachronic becomes fused with the synchronic in the process of an allusion's recontextualization This study in a heuristic manner focuses on the way that each allusion is appropriated and resignified for the needs of both Joel's community and those of the later NT in order to understand the function of canonical hermeneutics New Solutions of New Testament Problems Edgar Johnson Goodspeed, 1927

Community-Forming Power Matthias Wenk, 2004-10-13 In past years the controversy over Luke's concept of the Spirit has centred on the ethical dimension of his pneumatology Community Forming Power sets out to address the issue by assessing the Lukan writings in the light of evidence from Second Temple Judaism and in applying speech act theory to prophetic utterances Wenk argues that the Spirit's role in prophecy cannot be limited to the content of the prophetic speech stripping it artificially from the intention behind it He further argues that the anointed church continues the liberating work of the anointed messiah in embracing the marginalized and thus is instrumental in realizing good news for the poor
