Lynchers Moon

Jonathan Paul Markovitz

Lynchers Moon:

Mary Turner and the Memory of Lynching Julie Buckner Armstrong, 2011 Mary Turner and the Memory of Lynching traces the reaction of activists artists writers and local residents to the brutal lynching of a pregnant woman near Valdosta Georgia In 1918 the murder of a white farmer led to a week of mob violence that claimed the lives of at least eleven African Americans including Hayes Turner When his wife Mary vowed to press charges against the killers she too fell victim to the mob Mary s lynching was particularly brutal and involved the grisly death of her eight month old fetus It led to both an entrenched local silence and a widespread national response in newspaper and magazine accounts visual art film literature and public memorials Turner s story became a centerpiece of the Anti Lynching Crusaders campaign for the 1922 Dyer Bill which sought to make lynching a federal crime Julie Buckner Armstrong explores the complex and contradictory ways this horrific event was remembered in works such as Walter White s report in the NAACP s newspaper the Crisis the Kabnis section of Jean Toomer s Cane Angelina Weld Grimk s short story Goldie and Meta Fuller s sculpture Mary Turner A Silent Protest against Mob Violence Like those of Emmett Till and Leo Frank Turner s story continues to resonate on multiple levels Armstrong s work provides insight into the different roles black women played in the history of lynching as victims as loved ones left behind and as those who fought back The crime continues to defy conventional forms of representation illustrating what can and cannot be said about lynching and revealing the difficulty and necessity of confronting this nation s legacy of racial violence

Gender and Lynching Evelyn M. Simien, 2016-04-30 The authors probe the reasons and circumstances surrounding the death and torture of African American female victims relying on such methodological approaches as comparative historical work content and media analysis as well as literary criticism

Legacies of Lynching Jonathan Markovitz, 2004 Between 1880 and 1930 thousands of African Americans were lynched in the United States Beyond the horrific violence inflicted on these individuals lynching terrorized whole communities and became a defining characteristic of Southern race relations in the Jim Crow era As spectacle lynching was intended to serve as a symbol of white supremacy Yet Jonathan Markovitz notes the act s symbolic power has endured long after the practice of lynching has largely faded away Legacies of Lynching examines the evolution of lynching as a symbol of racial hatred and a metaphor for race relations in popular culture art literature and political speech Markovitz credits the efforts of the antilynching movement with helping to ensure that lynching would be understood not as a method of punishment for black rapists but as a terrorist practice that provided stark evidence of the brutality of Southern racism and as America s most vivid symbol of racial oppression Cinematic representations of lynching from Birth of a Nation to Do the Right Thing he contends further transform the ways that American audiences remember and understand lynching as have disturbing recent cases in which alleged or actual acts of racial violence reconfigured stereotypes of black criminality Markovitz further reveals how lynching imagery has been politicized in contemporary society with the example of Clarence Thomas who condemned the Senate s investigation into allegations of sexual harassment during his Supreme Court confirmation hearings as a high tech lynching Even today as revealed by the 1998 dragging death of James Byrd in Jasper Texas and the national soul searching it precipitated lynching continues to pervade America s collective memory Markovitz concludes with an analysis of debates about a recent exhibition of photographs of lynchings suggesting again how lynching as metaphor remains always in the background of our national discussions of race and racial relations Jonathan Markovitz is a lecturer in sociology at the University of California San Diego
