A Checklist of Vietnam War Literature, 1994      A Checklist of Some New Science Fiction Writers C. P. Stephens, 1994      Exodus from Hell Jack Buchanan, 1986      M.I.A., Or, Mythmaking in America Howard Bruce Franklin, 1992

Almost two decades after the Vietnam War most Americans remain convinced that U S prisoners are still being held captive in Southeast Asia and many even accuse the government of concealing their existence But as H Bruce Franklin demonstrates in his startling investigation there is no plausible basis for the belief in live POWs Through scrupulous research he shows for the first time how this illusion was fabricated and then converted into a powerful myth Franklin reveals that in 1969 the Nixon administration aided by militant pro war forces manufactured the POW MIA issue to deflect attention from American atrocities in Vietnam to undermine the burgeoning anti war movement and to stymie the Paris peace talks resulting in the prolongation of the Vietnam War for another four years Successive administrations in an effort to mobilize public support for their continued economic and political warfare against Vietnam asserted the possibility of live POWs at great emotional cost to both family members of the missing and countless Americans distressed about the fate of those supposedly left behind in Indochina Born of political expediency the POW MIA issue was transformed in the 1980s into a potent myth American culture was transfigured as movies and novels designed to reimagine the Vietnam War turned the imagined post war POWs into crucial symbols of betrayed American manhood and honor Finally the myth began to turn against its creators when many Americans became convinced that the government itself was conspiring to betray the missing men As he traces the evolution of the POW MIA myth Franklin not only exposes it as an elaborate hoax at the highest levels of government but also explains why the myth has penetrated to the heart of American life By confronting the true tragedy of the missing in Vietnam Franklin helps us to understand how to heal the terrible psychological and spiritual wounds of the Vietnam War      Tunnel for Traitors Nick Carter, 1986      Slave Trade Chuck Bainbridge, 1987 The five members of the Hard Corps attempt to stop Harold Glover a cult leader and con man from selling his gullible followers into white slavery      Desert Death Raid Jack Buchanan, 1989 The presidential party of a small African nation is held hostage by a savage band of cutthroat rebels and it's the job of Mark Stone and his men to rescue them A piece of cake until the rebels force their chopper to crash land in a deadly patch of land      Back to 'Nam Jack Buchanan, 1990
