Malta escorting tiny formations of Cant Z 1007s SM 79s and Ju 88s The fighting subsided in August and September but grew in strength with the arrival of more C 202s In October the Regia Aeronautica could muster three Gruppi with a total of 74 C 202s For ten days the Italians pressed a relentless attack before attrition brought the offensive to a halt Throughout the bombing campaign the British were able to supply Malta with ever increasing numbers of Spitfires and this book highlights their significance Subject Catalog, 1981 Library of Congress,1981 Astronautics & Aeronautics ,1982

Aces High, Volume 1 Christopher Shores,Clive Williams,2008-09-18 First in the Aces High series a military reference of the fighter pilots who had five or more confirmed victories while serving in the Royal Air Force Introduced by the French quite early in World War I the term ace was used to describe a pilot credited with five or more aerial victories But in the United Kingdom the term was never officially recognized Becoming an ace was partly luck especially considering the campaigns in which they flew and the areas of combat There are three distinct kinds of aces the defensive ace the offensive ace and the night fighter This book is a revised collection of the biographies of the highest scoring Allied fighter pilots of World War II including those with the confirmed claims of shooting down five aircraft and those pilots with lower scores but whose wartime careers prove them worthy of inclusion All details of their combat are arranged in tabular form Included are a selection of photographs from hitherto private collections There are some authors whose name alone is sufficient reason to but a book and Christopher Shores is surely one of these By profession a chartered surveyor he served in the Royal Air Force in the 1950s so his writing bears the stamp of authenticity HistoryNet Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2000
