Machine Dreams:

Machine Dreams Jayne Anne Phillips, 1985 Het leven van een Amerikaanse familie in de periode 1950 1970 waarin o a de oorlog in Vietnam van invloed was op de levens van direct en indirect betrokkenen Machine Dreaming and Consciousness J. F. Pagel, Philip Kirshtein, 2017-04-13 Machine Dreaming and Consciousness is the first book to discuss the questions raised by the advent of machine dreaming Artificial intelligence AI systems meeting criteria of primary and self reflexive consciousness are often utilized to extend the human interface creating waking experiences that resemble the human dream Surprisingly AI systems also easily meet all human based operational criteria for dreaming These dreams are far different from anthropomorphic dreaming including such processes as fuzzy logic liquid illogic and integration instability all processes that may be necessary in both biologic and artificial systems to extend creative capacity Today multi linear AI systems are being built to resemble the structural framework of the human central nervous system The creation of the biologic framework of dreaming emotions associative memories and visual imagery is well within our technical capacity AI dreams potentially portend the further development of consciousness in these systems This focus on AI dreaming raises even larger questions In many ways dreaming defines our humanity What is humanly special about the states of dreaming And what are we losing when we limit our focus to its technical and biologic structure and extend the capacity for dreaming into our artificial creations Machine Dreaming and Consciousness provides thorough discussion of these issues for neuroscientists and other researchers investigating consciousness and cognition Addresses the function and role of dream like processing in AI systems Describes the functions of dreaming in the creative process of both humans and machines Presents an alternative approach to the philosophy of machine consciousness Provides thorough discussion of machine dreaming and consciousness for neuroscientists and other researchers investigating consciousness and cognition Machine Dreams Joshua Mertz, 2000 Three men will bear witness to the violent birth of a new medium Anson the amnesiac with a photographic memory Schlosser the crippled genius addicted to murder and Daniel the twelve year old groomed for servitude Back cover Machine Dreams David Bradway, 2015 The Secret Country Sarah Robertson, 2007 The Secret Country is the first monograph on the work of the contemporary American novelist Jayne Anne Phillips Through detailed and innovative textual analysis this study considers the southern aspects of Phillips writing Robertson demonstrates the importance of Phillips place within the southern literary canon by identifying the echoes of William Faulkner Katherine Anne Porter and Edgar Allan Poe that permeate her work Phillips complex attachments to a regional past are explored through both psychoanalytical and historical materialist approaches revealing not only the writer s distinctly southern preoccupations but also her reflections on contemporary American society Tracing the family dynamics in Phillips work from the turn of the twentieth century to the present this book examines the effects of increased modernization and capitalization on everyday interactions and questions the nature of the author s backward glance to the past This volume is of interest for a wide audience particularly students and scholars of contemporary southern and American literature New Fathers? Contemporary American Stories of Masculinity, Domesticity and Kinship Helena Wahlström, 2010-10-12 What do novels such as Annie Proulx's The Shipping News Michael Cunningham's A Home at the End of the World and Jayne Anne Phillips' MotherKind have in common with films such as Smoke and Mrs Doubtfire This study explores the intersection of masculinity and domesticity in contemporary film and literature It argues that these texts produced since the 1990s address with some urgency the notion of new fatherhood in the United States They offer explorations of the idea that American fatherhood around the turn of the twenty first century is changing and they problematize the legitimacy of new fathers and alternative families in a national culture where the old patriarch and the nuclear family still often loom large in the imagination of many Americans Machine Dreams Outlet, Outlet Book Company Staff, Random House Value Publishing Staff, 1986-05-01 American Women Writing Fiction Mickey Pearlman, 2014-10-17 American literature is no longer the refuge of the solitary hero Like the society it mirrors it is now a far richer many faceted explication of a complicated and diverse society racially culturally and ethnically interwoven and at the same time fractured and fractious Ten women writing fiction in America today Toni Cade Bambara Joan Didion Louise Erdrich Gail Godwin Mary Gordon Alison Lurie Joyce Carol Oates Jayne Anne Phillips Susan Fromberg Schaeffer and Mary Lee Settle represent that geographic ethnic and racial diversity that is distinctively American Their differing perspectives on literature and the American experience have produced Erdrich's stolid North Dakota plainswomen Didion's sun baked dreamers and screamers the urban ethnics Irish Jewish and black of Gordon Schaeffer and Bambara Oates's small town often violent neurotics Lurie's intellectual sophisticates and the southern survivors and victims male and female of Phillips Settle and Godwin The ten original essays in this collection focus on the traditional themes of identity memory family and enclosure that pervade the fiction of these writers The fictional women who emerge here as these critics show are often caught in the interwoven strands of memory perceive literal and emotional space as entrapping find identity elusive and frustrating and experience the interweaving of silence solitude and family in complex patterns Each essay in this collection is followed by bibliographies of works by and about the writer in question that will be invaluable resources for scholars and general readers alike Here is a readable critical discussion of ten important contemporary novelists who have broadened the pages of American literature to reflect more clearly the people we are Machine Dreams , 1998 The Human Machine John Ferguson Nisbet, 1899 Machine Dreams Philip Mirowski, 2002 This is the first cross over book into the history of science written by an historian of economics It shows how history of technology can be integrated with the history of economic ideas The analysis combines Cold War history with the history of postwar economics in America and later elsewhere revealing that the Pax Americana had much to do with abstruse and formal doctrines such as linear programming and game theory It links the literature on cyborg to economics an element missing in literature to date The treatment further calls into question the idea that economics has been immune to postmodern currents arguing that neoclassical economics has participated in the deconstruction of the integral self Finally it argues for an alliance of computational and institutional themes and challenges the widespread impression that there is nothing else besides American neoclassical economic theory left standing after the demise of Marxism Machine Dreams (Volume One) Blurb, Incorporated,2017-05-13 A Zine compilation of creative work and critical theory on the machine arts and difference Contributions largely drawn from the conference Machine Dreams A Symposium on Arts Robots and Difference held at UCLA in 2015 and co organized by Lucy Burns Neil Aitken and Margaret Rhee With additional writing and art included the Machine Dreams Zine offers provocative and playful remediations on the machine in our digital times Designed by The Mystery Parade This zine is sold at cost no profit made The Socialist Spirit ,1901 The Cosmopolitan ,1893 The Book of Knowledge Arthur Mee,1911 Machine Dreams Photographers' Gallery,1989-01-01 Electrical Experimenter ,1924 Mind ,1904 American Machinist & Automated Manufacturing ,1923 The South Carolina Review ,1991
