Nocturne indien Antonio Tabucchi, Lise Chapuis, 1999-01-02

When Stories Travel Cristina Della Coletta, 2012-03-19 Adapting fiction into film is as author Cristina Della Coletta asserts a transformative encounter that takes place not just across media but across different cultures In this book Della Coletta explores what it means when the translation of fiction into film involves writers directors and audiences who belong to national historical and cultural formations different from that of the adapted work In particular Della Coletta examines narratives and films belonging to Italian North American French and Argentine cultures These include Luchino Visconti s adaptation of James M Cain s The Postman Always Rings Twice Federico Fellini s version of Edgar Allan Poe s story Never Bet the Devil Your Head Alain Corneau s film based on Antonio Tabucchi s Notturmo indiano and Bernardo Bertolucci s take on Jorge Luis Borges s Tema del traidor y del hroe In her framework for analyzing these cross cultural film adaptations Della Coletta borrows from the philosophical hermeneutics of Hans Georg Gadamer and calls for a hermeneutics of estrangement a practice of mediation and adaptation that defines cultures nations selfhoods and their aesthetic achievements in terms of their transformative encounters Stories travel to unexpected and interesting places when adapted into film by people of diverse cultures While the intended meaning of the author may not be perfectly reproduced it still holds Della Coletta argues an equally valid and important intellectual claim upon its interpreters With a firm grasp on the latest developments in adaptation theory Della Coletta invites scholars of media studies cultural history comparative literature and adaptation studies to deepen their understanding of this critical encounter between texts writers readers and cultural movements
