Noël Coward

Noel The Coward:

Noel Coward Philip Hoare, 2013-05-21 The definitive biography of one of the 20th century's most celebrated and controversial dramatists. To several generations actor, playwright, songwriter and filmmaker Noel Coward 1899-1973 was the very personification of wit, glamour and elegance. Given unprecedented access to the private papers and correspondence of Coward, family members, compatriots and numerous lovers, Samuel Johnson Prize-winning biographer Philip Hoare has produced an illuminating and sophisticated biography of Coward whose relentless drive for success and approval fueled the stunning bursts of creativity that launched the once painfully middle-class boy from the suburbs of London into a pantheon of theatrical deities that includes Gilbert and Sullivan, Oscar Wilde and George Bernard Shaw. As much the embodiment of a lifestyle as an actual inhabitant of it, Coward's carefully cultivated image defined the aspirations of untold numbers of actors, artists and writers who succeeded him, and Hoare's meticulously researched biography peels away the layers of this complex persona to reveal the man underneath it all, whom The Times London decreed upon his death to be the most versatile of all the great figures of the English theater.

Noel Coward In His Own Words Noël Coward, 2008-09-29 In my time I have said some noteworthy and exceptionally memorable things. Noel Coward. A delightful and revealing collection of quotations from the master wordsmith Noel Coward. In his plays, verse, song lyrics, stories and everyday life, he chose his words to uniquely stylish and truthful effect. This insightful portrait includes not only his best-loved witticisms, bons mots and lyrics, but also excerpts from his private papers and hidden gems from unpublished material. Barry Day delves into the whole range of Coward's talents as well as his thoughts on theatre, England, the Arts, religion, life and the man himself. In His Own Words displays the usual frivolity and a surprising capacity for depth and compassion.
