Old Trolleybuses:

Old Trolleybuses David Kaye, 2011-04-19 Interest in old trolleybuses increased when it became obvious in the early 1960s that their days were numbered. More recently this interest has been boosted by the prospect of a new generation of trolleybuses serving the public in Britain in the twenty first century. Meanwhile hundreds of hours of loving care have been spent on restoring those trolleybuses which have survived over the years. They may be admired as static exhibits in Belfast, Cardiff, Dublin, Glasgow and London but rides can still be enjoyed on them at Carlton Colville, Suffolk and Sandtoft, North Lincolnshire. Old Trolleybuses traces the fascinating history of the trolleybus from the first experiments in this mode of electric transport carried out over one hundred years ago to the retirement of the trolleybus system in recent decades.

Lithuania Sally Chambers, 2025-11-21 This new comprehensively updated sixth edition of Bradt's Lithuania remains the only full length standalone guide to the largest and southernmost of the three Baltic states. Insider insights and intimate depictions from authors steeped in the country's tourism industry since 2000 characterise this new guidebook to an exciting, relatively under the radar destination. The old town of Vilnius, the capital where grand Gothic and Baroque facades line cobbled streets, the second city Kaunas and the UNESCO listed Lithuanian coast the Curonian Spit with its traditional fishing villages amid fragile sand dune ecosystems are the eye candy that attract international visitors. Behind these main sights is a patchwork of unspoilt rolling landscapes, wholesome village life, crafts traditions and scars from a brutal Soviet occupation. Upon these elements are layered the youthful energy, new technologies and quirky artistic expression that create the vibrant spirit leading Lithuania into a new era. Lithuania is a year round destination with four distinct seasons: feel spring's vitality when wandering amid wildflower rich meadows, soak up summer vibes at the seaside.
