Olive Cotton Olive Cotton, 2005 Olive Cotton, Photographer, 1995 Patterns in time Life in the country Olive Cotton Helen Ennis, 2019-11-01 A landmark biography of a singular and important Australian photographer Olive Cotton by an award winning writer beautifully written and deeply moving Winner 2022 Adelaide Festival Awards for Literature Non Fiction Award Winner of the 2020 Canberra Critics Circle Award for Biography Winner of the University of Queensland Non Fiction Book Award Queensland Literary Awards 2020 Winner of the Magarey Medal for Biography for 2020 Longlisted for the 2020 Mark Evette Moran Nib Literary Award 2020 Olive Cotton was one of Australia's pioneering modernist photographers whose significant talent was recognised as equal to her first husband the famous photographer Max Dupain Together Olive and Max were an Australian version of Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera or Ray and Charles Eames and the photographic work they produced in the 1930s and early 1940s was bold distinctive and quintessentially Australian But in the mid 1940s Olive divorced Max leaving Sydney to live with her second husband Ross McInerney and raise their two children in a tent on a farm near Cowra later moving to a cottage that had no running water electricity or telephone for many years Famously quiet yet stubbornly determined Olive continued her photography despite these challenges and the lack of a dark room But away from the public eye her work was almost forgotten until a landmark exhibition in Sydney in 1985 shot her back to fame followed by a major retrospective at the Art Gallery of New South Wales in 2000 ensuring her reputation as one of the country's greatest photographers Intriguing moving and powerful this is Olive's story but it is also a compelling story of women and creativity and about what it means for an artist to try to balance the competing demands of their art work marriage children and family Absorbing illuminating and moving Inside Story Olive Cotton National Library of Australia, 2025 Olive Cotton is one of Australia's most respected photographers with a career that spanned over six decades

Max and Olive Shaune A. Lakin, 2016 Olive Cotton Josef Lebovic Gallery, Olive Cotton, 2009 Olive Cotton Olive Cotton, 1992 Olive Cotton Josef Lebovic Gallery, 2009 Olive Cotton Award 2007 Anouk Beck, 2007 2011 Olive Cotton Award Naomi Cass, 2011-05 2015 Olive Cotton Award for Photographic Portraiture Anouk Beck, 2015-08-06

2017 Olive Cotton Award for Photographic Portraiture Anouk Beck, 2017-07-10 Useless Beauty Ann Elias, 2015-10-05 The story of Australian art does not begin and end with landscape This book puts flowers front and centre because they have often been ignored in preference for more masculine themes Departing from where studies of single flower artists leave off Useless Beauty embraces the general topic of flowers in Australian art and shines new light on a slice of Australian art history that extends from 1880 to 1950 It is the first book of broad chronology to discuss Australian art through blossoms which it does by addressing stories of major figures including Hans Heysen Margaret Preston and Sidney Nolan as well as specific objects such as surreal flowers Aboriginal flowers and war flowers Whether modern or conservative the artists in this study shared an intellectual and emotional passion for flora This was true for men as well as women despite blossoms being a more traditionally feminine subject Through spectacular reproductions of historical and contemporary artworks drawn from collections in Australia the United States Britain and New Zealand Useless Beauty explores how flowers influenced the psyche governed rituals defined identity and brought a psychological dimension to the everyday The peak years for flower centrality in Australian art were between 1920 and 1940 when flowers were known as the apotheosis of useless beauty

Speaking of Us Barry York,1999 Echoes from the earliest years of the century mingle with the voices of contemporary Australia in this fascinating selection of excerpts from the Oral History Collection of the National Library of Australia Humour and drama sport culture politics and the media work and leisure are all represented There are stories of life from remote properties there are comments on society and government policies there are anecdotes and opinions

Negative/Positive Geoffrey Batchen,2020-12-21 As its title suggests Negative Positive begins with the negative a foundational element of analog photography that is nonetheless usually ignored and uses this to tell a representative rather than comprehensive history of the medium The fact that a photograph is split between negative and positive manifestations means that its identity is always simultaneously divided and multiplied The interaction of these two components was often spread out over time and space and could involve more than one person giving photography the capacity to produce multiple copies of a given image and for that image to have many different looks sizes and makers This book traces these complications for canonical images by such figures as William Henry Fox Talbot Kusakabe Kimbei Dorothea Lange Man Ray Seydou Ke ta Richard Avedon and Andreas Gursky But it also considers a number of related issues crucial to any understanding of photography from the business practices of professional photographers to the repetition of pose and setting that is so central to certain familiar photographic genres Ranging from the daguerreotype to the digital image the end result is a kind of little history of photography partial and episodic but no less significant a rendition of the photographic experience for being so This book represents a summation of Batchen s work to date making it be essential reading for students and scholars of photography and for all those interested in the history of the medium

The Endless Playground National Library of Australia,2000 This lavishly illustrated book takes a broad sweep through the history of Australian childhood from the early nineteenth century to the present Drawing on material from the Library s Pictorial Manuscript Ephemera and Newspaper Collections and using excerpts from the Oral History Collection in addition to specially commissioned feature articles from Robert Holden and children s writers Steven Herrick Ursula Dubosarsky and Jack Bedson the book surveys and celebrates two centuries of growing up in Australia

Serpents in the Garden Alexander Cockburn,Jeffrey St. Clair,2004 The latest in the award winning Counterpunch series detonates an explosion of voracious opinionated and witty fireworks on the unexpected intersections of politics art music architecture and sex This book showcases essays from the nation s most exciting and radical cultural critics

Kokoda Front Line Neil McDonald,2012-08-28 Damien Parer was without doubt Australia s greatest war photographer He helped create the Anzac legend and many many of our iconic war images are his photographs He served his apprenticeship as a stills photographer on the famous Chauvel film Forty Thousand Horsemen and was appointed Official Photographer covering the Australian fighting in the early days of World War II in Greece and Syria and Tobruk His most famous documentary is Kokoda Front Line made during the darkest days of the campaign in mid 1942 it went on to win Australia s first Academy Award His photographs and films brought the war home to Australians and are now an integral part of our military history He died in action shot by Japanese machine gun fire as he filmed an American advance on Peleliu Originally published as WAR CAMERAMAN THE STORY OF DAMIEN PARER and later in an expanded form as DAMIEN PARER S WAR this colourful and authoritative story of a great Australian includes many of his most iconic photographs Photographs Swann Galleries,1996 Olive Cotton Award ,2013
