On Modern Authority:

Meditations on Modern Political Thought Jean Bethke Elshtain, 2010-11-01 Modern Islamic Authority and Social Change, Volume 1 Masooda Bano, 2018-03-31 Explores the interconnected creative partnerships of the Wattses and De Morgans Victorian artists writers and suffragists Miracles, Political Authority and Violence in Medieval and Early Modern History Matthew Rowley, Natasha Hodgson, 2021-11-11 This volume examines how historical beliefs about the supernatural were used to justify violence secure political authority or extend toleration in both the medieval and early modern periods Contributors explore miracles political authority and violence in Orthodoxy Roman Catholicism various Protestant groups Judaism Islam and the local religious beliefs of Pacific Islanders who interacted with Christians The chapters are geographically expansive with contributions ranging from confessional conflict in Poland Lithuania to the conquest of Oceania They examine various types of conflict such as confessional struggles conversion attempts assassination and war as well as themes including diplomacy miraculous iconography toleration theology and rhetoric Together the chapters explore the appropriation of accounts of miraculous violence that are recorded in sacred texts to reveal what partisans claimed God did in conflict and how they claimed to know The volume investigates theories of justified warfare changing beliefs about the supernatural with the advent of modernity and the perceived relationship between human and divine agency Miracles Political Authority and Violence in Medieval and Early Modern History is of interest to scholars and students in several fields including religion and violence political and military history and theology and the reception of sacred texts in the medieval and early modern world PATRIMONIAL POWER in the MODERN WORLD Julia Adams, Mounira M. Charrad, 2011-07 During the 2011 uprisings in the Arab world protesters demanded the ouster of authoritarian forms of rule and an end to the influence of ruling families on politics society and the economy These upheavals revealed that patrimonial power in its diverse forms is still a dynamic force in global politics able to shape world events This volume brings the study of patrimonialism back to center stage and presents the concept as a useful tool to analyze how nations global developments and international relations are influenced and transformed Leading scholars show that patrimonial practices present throughout history are important features of global capitalist modernity The authors analyze patrimonial politics in regions throughout the world including in the United States Tunisia Chile France Iraq Lebanon Morocco Poland and Russia This volume will appeal to students of politics and policy and to a multidisciplinary scholarly audience in political sociology historical social science history and social theory The Enlightenment and Its Effects on Modern Society Milan Zafirovski, 2010-12-25 The Enlightenment of the late 17th and 18th century is characterized by an emphasis on reason and empiricism As a major shaping philosophy of Western culture it had a historical impact on the religious cultural academic and social institutions of 18th century Europe In this compelling volume the author explores the lasting impact of Enlightenment thinking on modern Western societies and other democracies With an interdisciplinary comparative historical approach this volume explores the impact of Enlightenment ideals such as liberty equality and social justice on current social institutions Combining sociological theory with concrete examples the author provides a unique framework for understanding modern cultural development including a picture of how it would look without this Enlightenment basis This work provides a multi faceted approach including an historical overview analysis of the Enlightenment s influence on modern democratic societies modern culture political science civil society and the economy as well as exploring the counter Enlightenment Post Enlightenment and Neo Enlightenment philosophies

Affective Authority: Passions, Morality and Governance in Early Modern England

Linda A. Linda Pollock,2025-06-10 Throws new light on the history of emotions as well as on cultural norms and elite governance in early modern English society This book investigates the intimate connection between emotion and morality in the landed ranks in England from 1580 to 1700 reintegrating the artificially separated spheres of emotions and ethics It argues that long before the modern eighteenth century emotions lay at the core of early modern ethics virtues and passions were fused and affect underpinned authority Passions affections and ethics were intertwined and must be understood together feelings enabled and constituted ethical conduct and were often mandated obligations while cultural norms were based on affective concepts Through a detailed analysis of four key affective values love gratitude repentance and obedience the book throws new light on the history of emotions as well as on cultural norms and elite governance in early modern English society The book merges social cultural and intellectual history It explores how ideals and concepts were practiced in daily life emphasizes the importance of the domestic familial world for the understanding and exercise of public authority and governance and insists on the centrality of the passions and affections to early modern morality It contributes to the history of emotions by reconnecting affect and ethics advances the history of English society by showing how authority was based on affect thus demonstrating the relevance of emotion to larger historical issues

Medieval and Early Modern Representations of Authority in Scotland and the British Isles

Kate Buchanan,Lucinda H.S. Dean,2016-05-20 What use is it to be given authority over men and lands if others do not know about it Furthermore what use is that authority if those who know about it do not respect it or recognise its jurisdiction And what strategies and language written and spoken visual and auditory material cultural and political did those in authority throughout the medieval and early modern era use to project and make known their power These questions have been crucial since regulations for governance entered society and are found at the core of this volume In order to address these issues from an historical perspective this collection of essays considers representations of authority made by a cross section of society within the British Isles Arranged in thematic sections the 14 essays in the collection bridge the divide between medieval and early modern to build up understanding of the developments and continuities that can be followed across the centuries in question Whether crown or noble government or church burgh or merchant all desired power and influence but their means of representing authority were very different These essays encompass a myriad of methods demonstrating power and disseminating the image of authority including material culture art literature architecture and landscapes saintly cults speeches and propaganda martial posturing and strategic alliances music liturgy and ceremonial display Thus this interdisciplinary collection illuminates the variable forms in which authority was presented by key individuals and institutions in Scotland and the British Isles By placing these within the context of the European powers with whom they interacted this volume also underlines the unique relationships developed between the people and those who exercised authority over them
