On Painting:

A List of Works on Painting in the National Art Library Victoria and Albert museum libr,1883      Leon Battista Alberti: On Painting Leon Battista Alberti,2011-05-09 In this volume Rocco Sinisgalli presents a new English translation and critical examination of Alberti's seminal text      Hawthorne on Painting Charles W. Hawthorne,1960-06-01 Look around and select a subject that you can see painted That will paint itself Do the obvious thing before you do the superhuman thing It may have been accidental but you knew enough to let this alone The good painter is always making use of accidents Never try to repeat a success Swing a bigger brush you don't know what fun you are missing For 31 years Charles Hawthorne spoke in this manner to students of his famous Cape Cod School of Art The essence of that instruction has been collected from students' notes and captured in this book retaining the personal feeling and the sense of on the spot inspiration of the original classroom Even though Hawthorne is addressing himself to specific problems in specific paintings his comments are so revealing that they will be found applicable a hundred times to your own work The book is divided into sections on the outdoor model still life landscape the indoor model and watercolor Each section begins with a concise essay and continues with comments on basic elements general character color form seeing posture etc It is in the matter of color that students will especially feel themselves in the presence of a master guide and critic Hawthorne's ability to see color and more important to make the student see color is a lesson that will aid student painters and anyone else interested in any phase of art Although it does not pretend to be a comprehensive or closely ordered course this book does have much to offer It also represents the artistic insight of one of the finest painter teachers of the twentieth century An excellent introduction for laymen and students alike Time To read these notes and comments is in itself an education One cannot help but gain great help School Arts      Early Chinese Texts on Painting Susan Bush,Hsio-yen Shih,2012-11-01 For students of Chinese art and culture this anthology has proven invaluable since its initial publication in 1985 It collects important Chinese writings about painting from the earliest examples through the fourteenth century allowing readers to see how the art of this rich era was seen and understood in the artists' own times Some of the texts in this treasury fall into the broad category of aesthetic theory some describe specific techniques some discuss the work of individual artists The texts are presented in accurate and readable translations and prefaced with artistic and historical background information to the formative periods of Chinese theory and criticism A glossary of terms and an appendix containing brief biographies of 270 artists and critics add to the usefulness of this volume      Hawthorne on Painting Charles W. Hawthorne,2013-06-17 Hawthorne was an American painter who founded the Cape Cod School of Art This work collected from notes taken by his actual students offers hundreds of direct lessons ideas suggestions and more      A Treatise On Painting Leonardo (Da Vinci),John William Brown,2022-10-27 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States

Painters on Painting Eric Protter,1971      Lectures on Painting Henry Fuseli,1979      Hensche on Painting John W. Robichaux,Dorothy Billiu-Hensche,2005-01-01 An artist for over seventy years and a teacher for more than sixty painter Henry Hensche 1901 1992 placed great emphasis in his classes on Monet s Impressionist tradition of seeing and painting color under the influence of light Hensche taught his students to see the light not the object says his biographer John Robichaux This book reveals the basic painting philosophy and methodology of a great teacher as expounded in his famous classes and workshops on Cape Cod

A Treatise on Painting by Leonardo Da Vinci Leonardo (da Vinci),1877      A Treatise on Painting John Burnet,1837      The American Catalogue ,1891      Gruppé on Painting Emile Albert Gruppé,Charles Movalli,John Lavin,1976      Sources of Information on Paint and Related Materials Eugene Francis Hickson,Clara Sentel,1949      Lectures on Painting James Barry,1848      A Treatise on Painting, in Four Parts John Burnet,1850 Illustrated with 130 etchings by the author Eight of the plates are colored by hand      Foucault on Painting Catherine M. Soussloff,2017-11-23 Michel Foucault had been concerned about painting and the meaning of the image from his earliest publications yet this aspect of his thought is largely neglected within the disciplines of art history and aesthetic theory In Foucault on Painting Catherine M Soussloff argues that Foucault s sustained engagement with European art history critically addresses present concerns about the mediated nature of the image in the digital age Foucault s writing on painting covers four discrete periods in European art history seventeenth century southern Baroque mid nineteenth century French painting Surrealism and figurative painting in the 1960s and 70s as well as five individual artists Vel zquez Manet Magritte Paul Reyberolle and G rard Fromanger As Soussloff reveals in this book Foucault followed a French intellectual tradition dating back to the seventeenth century which understands painting as a separate area of knowledge Painting a practice long considered silent in its operations and effects afforded Foucault an ideal discipline to think about history and philosophy simultaneously Using a comparative approach grounded in art history and aesthetics Soussloff explores the meaning of painting for Foucault s philosophy and for contemporary art theory proposing a new relevance for a Foucauldian view of ethics and the pleasures and predicaments of contemporary existence
