On Capital Punishment:

Debating the Death Penalty Hugo Adam Bedau,Paul G. Cassell,2005-03-24 When news breaks that a convicted murderer released from prison has killed again or that an innocent person has escaped the death chamber in light of new DNA evidence arguments about capital punishment inevitably heat up Few controversies continue to stir as much emotion as this one and public confusion is often the result This volume brings together seven experts judges lawyers prosecutors and philosophers to debate the death penalty in a spirit of open inquiry and civil discussion Here as the contributors present their reasons for or against capital punishment the multiple facets of the issue are revealed in clear and thought provoking detail Is the death penalty a viable deterrent to future crimes Does the imposition of lesser penalties such as life imprisonment truly serve justice in cases of the worst offences Does the legal system discriminate against poor or minority defendants Is the possibility of executing innocent persons sufficient grounds for abolition In confronting such questions and making their arguments the contributors marshal an impressive array of evidence both statistical and from their own experiences working on death penalty cases The book also includes the text of Governor George Ryan's March 2002 speech in which he explained why he had commuted the sentences of all prisoners on Illinois's death row By representing the viewpoints of experts who face the vexing questions about capital punishment on a daily basis Debating the Death Penalty makes a vital contribution to a more nuanced understanding of the moral and legal problems underlying this controversy

Death Penalty Cases Barry Latzer,2010-10-27 Death Penalty Cases presents significant verbatim excerpts of death penalty decisions from the United States Supreme Court The first chapter introduces the topics discussed throughout the book It also includes a detailed history of the death penalty in the United States After this introduction the remaining eighteen chapters are divided into five parts Foundational Cases Death Eligible Crimes and Persons The Death Penalty Trial Post Conviction Review and Execution Issues The first part consisting of five chapters talks about the mandatory death penalty mitigating evidence and racial bias The next part covers death eligible crimes such as rape and other crimes that do not involve homicide and murder The middle part presents the trial process from choosing the appropriate decision makers through the sentencing decision Followed by this is a chapter focusing on the aftermath of conviction such as claims of innocence The book concludes by exploring issues related to execution such as not executing insane convicts Finally execution methods are presented Provides the most recent case material no need to supplement Topical organization of cases provides a more logical organization for structuring a course Co authors with different perspectives on the death penalty assures complete impartiality of the material Provides the necessary historical background a clear explanation of the current capital case process and an impartial description of the controversies surrounding the death penalty Provides the latest statistics relevant to discussions on the death penalty Clearly explains the different ways in which the states process death penalty cases with excerpts of the most relevant statutes

Justices William J. Brennan, Jr. and Thurgood Marshall on Capital Punishment Alan I. Bigel,1997 Justices William J Brennan Jr and Thurgood Marshall are the only members of the United States Supreme Court who categorically opposed the death penalty for the duration of their tenure Both wrote a large number of intellectually provocative opinions which examined a wide range of legal and moral arguments frequently raised concerning capital punishment This book is a meticulous examination of their opinions which not only amplifies their constitutional philosophy but also explores the evolving questions on capital punishment which were presented to the Court The opinions of Brennan and Marshall were extremely cogent and quite consistent in their approach to the death penalty Both maintained that the death penalty is unconstitutional and a barbaric form of punishment which has been arbitrarily inflicted based on racial and ethnic bias This book examines their opinions within the larger context of arguments generally put forward both in support of and opposition to the death penalty The text of this book originally appeared in its entirety in the Notre Dame Journal of Law Ethics and Public Policy vol 8 issue 1 1994
