 Kennedy A New Meaning-Mission Fit Michelle French-Holloway, 2020-05-11 This book offers a clear process for managers professionals and future leaders to help discover their personal meaning in life and apply it to their work The author uses research outcomes and theories to refute the contemporary philosophy that stresses following an individual's passion alone when choosing a particular job or career Instead she recommends employing a personal meaning oriented approach to life and work and then becoming passionate about one's work organically The book also highlights the positive outcomes to organizations and societies when individuals engage with finding meaning in work focusing on physical and emotional health and satisfaction The author provides numerous examples of leaders who have aligned their personal meaning and organizational mission also known as meaning mission fit and the relationship of this alignment to their emotional well being Together the research theory and evidence in this book equip leaders and managers with an inspiring model to find their own meaning mission fit as well as create opportunities for the employees to do the same Meeting the Collaboration Challenge Workbook Peter F. Drucker Foundation for Nonprofit Management, 2002-05-24 In his award winning book The Collaboration Challenge James E Austin demonstrated how nonprofits and businesses can succeed through strategic alliances Now in Meeting the Collaboration Challenge the Drucker Foundation provides specific guidance to help nonprofits of every size put collaboration into practice This workbook its companion videotape and The Collaboration Challenge help your nonprofit organization further its mission through strategic alliances with businesses Meeting the Collaboration Challenge emphasizes the assets and capabilities that nonprofit organizations bring to alliances with business It presents a four phase process of preparing your organization for alliances planning alliances developing alliances and renewing alliances Each phase is intended to encourage participation in successful nonprofit business alliances and to organize information and guide discussions about them Its practical resources help to Identify assets and capabilities a nonprofit might provide and benefits it might seek in alliances Review strategic goals and readiness for developing alliances Research each potential alliance to assess strategic fit and opportunities Discover additional businesses with which a nonprofit might create alliances Design a marketing approach for each alliance Develop the management plan for each alliance Appraise each alliance and its potential Through this systematic process for developing your nonprofit s alliances with businesses you can build collaboration that benefits both partners and the customers and communities they serve
