On My Painting:

On My Painting [and Other Writings]. Max Beckmann, 1938      Max Beckmann: On My Painting Max Beckmann, 2013-09-05 Max Beckmann is widely acknowledged as one of Germany's leading twentieth century artists. A figurative painter throughout his career, Beckmann depicted the world around him with an unparalleled intensity. His art emerges directly from his experiences of the First and Second World Wars, the political upheavals of the 1920s and 1930s, the rise of Nazism, exile in Amsterdam, and his final emigration to the United States. By capturing the objects and events that surrounded him, Beckmann hoped to grasp the deeper mysteries underlying human existence. He perceived and painted the world as a vast stage at once real and magical upon which his own life and the traumas of contemporary history were closely intertwined. On My Painting can give a valuable insight into understanding his work. It was composed in 1938 at a crucial juncture in Beckmann's life, just a year after he was included in the Degenerate Art exhibition in Nazi Germany. It was read by him at the opening of the Twentieth Century German Art exhibition. With an introduction by Mayen Beckmann, the artist's granddaughter, and an afterword by Sean Rainbird.      Three Essays on the Painting of our Time Adrian Stokes, 2013-11-05 Tavistock Press was established as a co-operative venture between the Tavistock Institute and Routledge. Kegan Paul RKP in the 1950s to produce a series of major contributions across the social sciences. Reproduced here in facsimile, this volume was originally published in 1961 and is available individually. Zatorre, 2014-12-18 Could we understand in biological terms the unique and fantastic capabilities of the human brain to both create and enjoy art? In the past decade, neuroscience has made a huge leap in developing experimental techniques as well as theoretical frameworks for studying emergent properties following the activity of large neuronal networks. These methods, including MEG, fMRI, sophisticated data analysis approaches, and behavioral methods, are increasingly being used in many labs worldwide with the goal to explore brain mechanisms corresponding to the artistic experience. The 37 articles composing this unique Frontiers Research Topic bring together experimental and theoretical research linking state-of-the-art knowledge about the brain with the phenomena of Art. It covers a broad scope of topics contributed by world-renowned experts in vision, audition, somatosensation, movement, and cinema. Importantly, as we felt that a dialog among artists and scientists is essential and fruitful, we invited a few artists to contribute their insights as well as their art. Joan Mir said that art is the search for the alphabet of the mind. This volume reflects the state of the art search to understand neurobiological alphabet of the Arts We hope that the wide range of articles in this volume will be highly attractive to brain researchers artists and the community at large The Routledge Companion to Literature and Art Neil Murphy,W.
