On Shory Stories:

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies Edinburgh Companion to the Short Story in English Paul Delaney, 2018-02-01 Provides a clear introduction to the key terms and frameworks in cognitive poetics and stylistics Writing in General and the Short Story in Particular Rust Hills, 2000-09-06 Wise advice on plot character and style from a legendary Esquire editor Every aspiring fiction writer ought to read this Writer's Digest Over the course of his long and colorful career as fiction editor for Esquire magazine L Rust Hills championed the early work of literary luminaries such as Norman Mailer John Cheever Don DeLillo Raymond Carver and E Annie Proulx His skill at identifying talent and understanding story made him a legend within the industry as an unparalleled editor of short fiction Writing in General and the Short Story in Particular is a master class in writing especially short story writing from the master himself Drawing on a lifetime of experience and success this practical guide explains essential techniques of writing fiction from developing character to crafting plots to effectively employing literary techniques Clear and concise enough for any beginner but wise and powerful enough for any pro Writing in General is a classic to be savored by both aspiring and seasoned writers ICLLE 2019 Syahrul R ,Zulfadhli,Muhammad Adek,Kundharu Saddhono, 2019-07-19 As an annual event International Conference on Language Literature and Education in Digital Era ICLLE 2019 continued the agenda to bring together researcher academics experts and professionals in examining selected theme by language literature and education in digital era In 2019 this event held in 19 20 July 2019 at Padang Indonesia The conference from any kind of stakeholders related with Language and literature especially in education Each contributed paper was refereed before being accepted for publication The double blind peer reviewed was used in the paper selection Literature in the Making Nancy Glazener, 2016 In the eighteenth century literature meant learned writings by the twentieth century literature had come to be identified with imaginative aesthetically significant works and academic literary studies had developed special protocols for interpreting and valuing literary texts Literature in the Making examines what happened in between how literature came to be more precisely specified and valued how it was organized into genres canons and national traditions and how it became the basis for departments of modern languages and literatures in research universities Modern literature the version of literature familiar today was an international invention but it was forged when literary cultures traditions and publishing industries were mainly organized nationally Literature in the Making examines modern literature's coalescence and institutionalization in the United States considered as an instructive instance of a phenomenon that was going global Since modern literature initially offered a way to formulate the value of legacy texts by authors such as Homer Cervantes and Shakespeare however the development of literature and literary culture in the U S was fundamentally transnational Literature in the Making argues that Shakespeare studies one of the richest tracts of nineteenth century U S literary culture was a key domain in which literature came to be valued both for fuelling modern projects and for safeguarding values and practices that modernity put at risk a foundational paradox that continues to shape literary studies and literary culture Bringing together the histories of literature's competing conceptualizations its print infrastructure its changing status in higher education and its life in public culture during the long nineteenth century Literature in the Making offers a robust account of how and why literature mattered then and matters now By highlighting the lively collaboration between academics and non academics that prevailed before the ascendancy of the research university starkly divided experts from amateurs Literature in the Making also opens new possibilities for envisioning how academics might partner with the reading public

The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany      Short Stories David Owens Short Stories, 2019-08-27 If you can't decide which new novel or nonfiction book to pick up here's another idea try reading a short story collection Rather than focus on a singular narrative these unique options weave together the voices of several writers or focus on multiple stories by an author you know and love Short stories are tiny windows into other worlds and other minds and other dreams They are journeys you can make to the far side of the universe and still be back in time for dinner

Collected Short Stories: Volume 1 W. Somerset Maugham, 1992-09-01 These 30 short stories comprising Somerset Maugham's first collection are set in locations ranging from England France and Spain to the silver sands of the South Pacific They include Rain The Three Fat Women of Antibes The Voice of the Turtle and Before the Party For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators      Musical Heroes Robert Ponsonby, 2012-07-18 Robert Ponsonby has been at the centre of the music world both in Britain and elsewhere for some sixty years and Musical Heroes is a distillation of his experiences achievements and friendships in that world With its deft touch and its empathy it is both captivating and inspiring and it is often full of humour It paints portraits in many formats of the fifty or so figures he knew best including conductors composers performers and administrators Boult Beecham Giulini Pritchard Kubelik Boulez Walton Tippett Berio Ligeti Henze Menuhin Sena Jurinac Rostropovich Jacqueline du Pré John Ogdon William Glock John Drummond Thomas Armstrong and Robert Mayer are some of those featured There has been a widespread renaissance in the appreciation of classical music in the past few years above all among talented young musicians and composers and in schools where music is now taught systematically Musical Heroes will therefore have a wide appeal not only among established lovers of classical music but also among people who have discovered it for themselves more recently There is probably more active music making in Britain today than there has ever been and concerts in all parts of the country are often packed out Dame Janet Baker in her introduction One of the truly great privileges is to spend one's working life among charismatic interesting and gifted people It has clearly been the experience of Robert Ponsonby during his many years of artistic administration and he writes about it with obvious delight How refreshing to read his collection of portraits which steer such a well judged course between the light and darker sides of the human condition and give us a balanced picture of his subjects He has a delightful turn of phrase and describes aspects of character which I found immediately recognizable and true It is all done with wit perception kindness honesty affection and humour leaving this reader wanting more Bryce Morrison in The Gramophone This delightful book by one of music's most admired administrators is perfectly summarised by Dame Janet Baker in her characteristically warm hearted introduction Throughout the book there is an often moving wish to share a lifetime of involvement and dedication to the arts to celebrate true greatness and to disparage many more recent attitudes and events Ponsonby takes a sharp sword to the ever threatening forces of philistinism There is a superb chapter on Boulez's approach to the whole nature of conducting His warmth and candour shine through at every point Kenneth Walton in The Scotsman Robert Ponsonby's newly published memoirs Musical Heroes are not so much a self promotional nostalgia trip as a generous testament to the many classical music celebrities he has encountered over half a century as one of the UK's leading arts supremos At the core of this book are generous personal reflections on family friend Sir Adrian Boult the irascible Sir William Walton such legendary performers and composers as Jacqueline du Pré photographed informally in his Glasgow flat with Daniel Barenboim and former SNO leader Sam Bor playing piano trios Yehudi Menuhin John Ogden Pierre Boulez Michael Tippett and many more Andrew Clark in FT critics hottest holiday reading Ponsonby's essays sum up a golden era of music making He gives us fly on the wall portraits of the great musicians he knew in the course of a postwar career that took him from directing the Edinburgh Festival to the BBC Proms

Georgian Stories ..., 1922      The Booklist, 1927      Smithereens Richard Baines, 1998 An anthology that offers students the opportunity to enjoy investigate respond to and write short stories by meeting them in their shortest forms Each story is accompanied by activities Fragments to inspire talk about the pieces Chips for consideration of the technical devices that drive the story Scraps a workshop for imaginative writing and creative thinking      The Advance of the American Short Story Edward Joseph O'Brien, 1923      English and the Indian Short Story Mohan Ramanan, Pingali Sailaja, 2000 The essays in this volume seek to explore the genre of the short story in India and its relationship with English language and literature Various aspects of the question are taken up the impact of colonialism the way English has shaped or not short story writing why how and in what contexts English words are used feminist perspectives in the writings of women the Indian diaspora the teaching of the short story to Indian students and so on      Short Stories of Various Types Selma Lagerlöf, Arthur Conan Doyle, Alphonse Daudet, Booth Tarkington, Dorothy Canfield Fisher, Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews, Nathaniel Hawthorne, O. Henry, Myra Kelly, Hamlin Garland, James Matthew Barrie, Francis Bret Harte, Katherine Mayo, 2023-08-22 Short Stories of Various Types is a riveting anthology that showcases the rich tapestry of narrative craft across different eras and styles This collection brings together a distinguished array of tales that range from the tender realism of Dorothy Canfield Fisher to the intriguing mysteries of Arthur Conan Doyle articulating a diverse spectrum of human experiences The anthology distinguishes itself by not only including works from various geographical regions but also by offering a wide array of literary styles from gothic tales by Nathaniel Hawthorne to the poignant humor of O Henry thereby accentuating the versatility and depth of short story writing as a form The contributing authors each an accomplished storyteller in their own right collectively present a panoramic view of the late 19th and early 20th centuries literary landscapes With backgrounds spanning continents and cultures these authors contribute to an eclectic mix that reflects the nuances and complexities of global human experiences This collection stands at the crossroads of literary movements blending romanticism realism and early modernist impulses thereby providing a textured and layered exploration of thematic preoccupations that resonate across time and space Short Stories of Various Types offers readers an unparalleled journey into the world of literary diversity and richness It invites a broad audience to explore the convergences and divergences of human experience as depicted through the prism of short fiction This anthology is not merely a collection of stories it is an invitation to engage with the myriad ways in which stories reflect distort and enhance our understanding of the world For students scholars and enthusiasts of literary history this volume serves as a testament to the enduring power of the short story format and its capability to encapsulate the human spirit in all its manifestations Literature ,1899
