Serafim Rose,elder Cleopa Ilie of Romania, et al,St. John (Maximovitch),IOan Vladuca,Nilus Stryker,2021-05-11 Wealth without work Pleasure without conscience Science without humanity Knowledge without character Politics without principle Commerce without morality Worship without sacrifice <https://vidjambov.blogspot.com/2023/01/book-inventory-vladimir-djambov-talmach.html> Every Orthodox Christian is placed between two worlds this fallen world where we try to work out our salvation and the other world heaven the homeland towards which we are striving and which if we are leading a true Christian life gives us the inspiration to live from day to day in Christian virtue and love But the world is too much with us We often and in fact nowadays we usually forget the heavenly world The pressure of worldliness is so strong today that we often lose track of what our life as a Christian is all about Even if we may be attending church services frequently and consider ourselves active church members how often our churchliness is only something external bound up with beautiful services and the whole richness of our Orthodox tradition of worship but lacking in real inner conviction that Orthodoxy is the faith that can save our soul for eternity lacking in real love for and commitment to Christ the incarnate God and Founder of our faith How often our church life is just a matter of habit something we go through outwardly but which does not change us inwardly does not make us grow spiritually and lead us to eternal life in God But it is easy to become lost in dreams of the future world We should be aware of what is to happen at the end of the world and of what may happen in Russia But spiritual events such as the resurrection of Russia depend upon each individual soul This seven will not happen without the participation of the Orthodox people our repentance and struggle And this involves not only the people of Russia itself it involves the whole of the Russian Diaspora and all the Orthodox people of the world Sound Alfred Marshall Mayer,1879 National Union Catalog Library of Congress,1979 Includes entries for maps and atlases
