Journeys of Transformation John D. Barbour, 2022-03-31 Western Buddhist travel narratives are autobiographical accounts of a journey to a Buddhist culture Dozens of such narratives have since the 1970s describe treks in Tibet periods of residence in a Zen monastery pilgrimages to Buddhist sites and teachers and other Asian odysseys The best known of these works is Peter Matthiessen's The Snow Leopard further reflections emerge from thirty writers including John Blofeld Jan Van de Wetering Thomas Merton Oliver Statler Robert Thurman Gretel Ehrlich and Bill Porter The Buddhist concept of no self helps these authors interpret certain pivotal experiences of unselfing and is also a catalyst that provokes and enables such events The writers' spiritual memoirs describe how their journeys brought about a new understanding of Buddhist enlightenment and so transformed their lives Showing how travel can elicit self transformation this book is a compelling exploration of the journeys and religious changes of both individuals and Buddhism itself Primitive Groups of Transformations in Space of Four Dimensions James M.
