Ordinary Enchantments:

Ordinary Enchantments Wendy B. Faris, 2004 Ordinary Enchantments investigates magical realism as the most important trend in contemporary international fiction defines its characteristics and narrative techniques and proposes a new theory to explain its significance In the most comprehensive critical treatment of this literary mode to date Wendy B Faris discusses a rich array of examples from magical realist novels around the world including the work not only of Latin American writers like Gabriel Garcia Marquez but also of authors like Salman Rushdie Gunter Grass Toni Morrison and Ben Okri Faris argues that by combining realistic representation with fantastic elements so that the marvelous seems to grow organically out of the ordinary magical realism destabilizes the dominant form of realism based on empirical definitions of reality gives it visionary power and thus constitutes what might be called a remystification of narrative in the West Noting the radical narrative heterogeneity of magical realism the author compares its cultural role to that of traditional shamanic performance which joins the worlds of daily life and that of the spirits Because of that capacity to bridge different worlds magical realism has served as an effective decolonizing agent providing the ground for marginal voices submerged traditions and emergent literatures to develop and create masterpieces At the same time this process is not limited to postcolonial situations but constitutes a global trend that replenishes realism from within In addition to describing what many consider to be the progressive cultural work of magical realism Faris also confronts the recent accusation that magical realism and its study as a global phenomenon can be seen as a form of commodification and an imposition of cultural homogeneity And finally drawing on the narrative innovations and cultural scenarios that magical realism enacts she extends those principles toward issues of gender and the possibility of a female element within magical realism Wonderful Design Lloyd

Whitesell, 2018-07-06 As one of the most beloved and beguiling genres of entertainment the film musical wears its style ostentatiously The genre allows for hyperbolic expression extravagant sonic and visual decor and extremely stylized forms of movement and performance By staging a glittering spectacle by releasing a current of lush sentiment by unveiling a world of elegance and romance the film musical woos us with patterns textures finesse and sensory display In this book author Lloyd Whitesell asks what exactly makes film musicals so glamorous As he argues glamour projects an aura of ethereality or sophistication by way of suave deportment sensuous textures elevated styles and aesthetically refined effects Glamour in other words is what unites Cheek to Cheek from Top Hat and the title song from Beauty and the Beast each a sonic evocation of luxury sparkle grace and finesse Whitesell redirects our attention from visual cues like sequins and evening gloves to explore how glamour resides in the sonic Discussing dozens of musical numbers analyzing ingenious orchestration and appraising the distinctive styles of favorite musical stars Whitesell illuminates fundamental traits of the genre its aesthetic strategies and cultural ambitions Dwellings of Enchantment Bénédicte Meillon, 2020-10-27 Dwellings of Enchantment Writing and Reenchanting the Earth offers ecocritical and ecopoetic readings that focus on multispecies dwellings of enchantment and reenchant our rapport with the more than human world It sheds light on the marvelous entanglements between humans and other life forms coexisting with us entanglements that when fully perceived call onto humans to shift perspectives on both the causes and solutions to current ecological crises Working against the disenchantment of humans relationships with and perceptions of the world entailed by a modern ontology this book illustrates the power of ecopoetics to attune humans to the vibrant matter both within and outside of us Braiding indigenous with non indigenous worldviews this book tackles ecopoetics emerging from varying locations in the world It underscores the postmodernist remythologizing processes going on in many ecopoetic texts via magical realist modes and mythopoeia Symbolism 12/13 Rüdiger Ahrens, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2013-12-12 Magic realism has become a significant mode of expression in Jewish cultural production This special focus of Symbolism for the first time explores in a comparative and transnational approach the magic realist engagement of Jewish writers artists and filmmakers from the Diaspora and from Israel with issues of identity oppression and persecution as well as the Holocaust Isabel Allende Joan Axelrod-Contrada, 2011 Readers of the books in Today's Writers and Their Works will learn the story behind each writer's story Magical Feminism in the Americas: Resisting Female Marginalisation and Oppression through Magic Abu Shahid Abdullah, 2025-01-07 The book aims to show the way magical feminism resists female marginalisation and oppression in the Americas Dealing with multiple victimisation of women in the Americas who have suffered not only because of their gender but also their race ethnicity political ideology social status financial insecurity and such magical feminism provides a voice to them so that they can speak about their marginalisation and victimisation In other words by using magical feminism these female authors attempt to give a voice to the oppressed women enabling them to resist and challenge the traditional female role and to raise their voices against various social and political issues The subversive and transgressive power of magical feminism enables the oppressed women to break patriarchal constraints and to reverse the traditional power structure By creating an imaginary realm through traditions local beliefs and rituals myth magic and the spirits of the dead ancestors as guides magical feminist technique functions as a survival strategy for women in traumatic and oppressive situations and provides them consolation The project includes a total of eight novels from African American Gloria Naylor's Mama Day Latin American Isabel Allende's The House of the Spirits Native American Louise Erdrich's Tracks Chicana Ana Castillo's So Far from God North American Gail Anderson Dargatz's The Cure for Death by Lightning Central American Gioconda Belli's The Inhabited Woman Hawaiian American Kiana Davenport's Shark Dialogues and Cuban American Cristina Garc'a's Dreaming in Cuban background

Moments of Magical Realism in US Ethnic Literatures Lyn Di Iorio Sandín, R.
