OREGON IMPRINTS

1845 1870

By George N. Belknap

OREGON IMPRINTS 1845-1870 describes 1,521 books, pamphlets, and broadsides printed in Oregon through 1870. Included are imprints recorded by Douglas C. McMurtrie in his 1950 bibliography of early Oregon printing, 700 additions to McMurtrie recorded in four supplements by Belknap in the "Oregon Historical Quarterly," and 262 items not previously described. Selectively, notes on recorded titles go beyond physical description and printing information to call attention to content of interest for the social, political, and economic history of Oregon, and to place titles in a context of related events and printed communications. Sometimes even such routine publications as the minutes and proceedings of churches and fraternal organizations gain significance through echoes of Indian troubles and the Civil War.

records and documents Web sites to help your search for more information and more Prestatehood Legal Materials provides you with brief overviews of state histories from colonization to acceptance into the United States In this book you will see how foreign countries controlled the laws of these territories and how these states eventually broke away to govern themselves The text also covers the legal issues with Native Americans inter state and the Mexico and Canadian borders and the development of the executive legislative and judicial branches of state government This guide focuses on materials that are readily available to historians political scientists legal scholars and researchers Resources that assist in locating not so easily accessible materials are also covered Special sections focus on the legal resources of colonial New York City and Washington DC which is still technically in its prestatehood stage Due to the enormity of this project the editor of
