John D. Cantrell

Organising For Educational Change:

Planning for Educational Change Martin Wedell, 2009-04-01 This book highlights the current ideas about the what why and how of educational change and what these suggest about the essential issues that change policy makers and planners need to consider It analyses international case studies of change initiatives to illustrate how the change process can be affected when such issues are insufficiently acknowledged or ignored Finally the book introduces a number of key questions for educational change practitioners to consider when they find themselves responsible for the planning and or implementation and or monitoring of changes within an institution a locality or a region Educational change scenarios from change within a single institution to local implementation of a national change are used to show how answers to these questions can help change planners to closely match their implementation processes to their local contextual realities

Organizing for School Change Karen Seashore Louis, 2006 Improving education is a key priority for governments around the world While many suggestions on how best to achieve this are currently under debate years of academic research have already revealed more about how to encourage change than is sometimes assumed This volume brings together for the first time some of the most significant work of Karen Seashore Louis one of the foremost thinkers and researchers in the field Organizing for School Change presents a unique variety of research based results from studies conducted over the past twenty five years What emerges is not an idealistic plan but a realistic picture of what needs to be done if schools are to be made better Drawing on a wide and comprehensive list of sources the ideas brought together in this collection will prove invaluable and insightful reading stimulating both newcomers and veterans of the field to consider educational research in new ways
