| It emphasizes the impact of environment on organizational design and managerial style.                                     | The emphasis is on interdependence and interaction among sub-systems.                               |
| The focus is on external environment of the organization.  | The focus is on the internal environment and sub-systems of the organization.                       |
| Each organization is taken as unique entity. Different organizations have different nature and face different situations.  | It treats all organizations alike and the background of the organization is not taken into account. |
| The impact of the environment on organization structure and managerial style is the major concern of contingency approach. | The organization interacts with the environment and adjusts as per the changes.                     |
| It suggests practical solutions to organizational problems.  | It provides a theoretical model of understanding the organization and its sub-systems.              |
| It rejects the blind application of classical principles of management.  | It is silent on the validity of classical principles of management.                                 |
