Agency and Author Rachel J. Halverson, Benjamin D. Schaper, 2025-01-01 The image of the solitary author devoting days and nights to writing endless bestselling novels remains an insidious and largely unchallenged myth within German culture In this exacting examination of the German publishing industry Agency and Author addresses the financial reality sometimes eclipsed by this idea Focusing on lesser known German language writers and their interactions with the Literaturbetrieb literary scene Agency and Author explores the ways authors assert creative agency in an increasingly eventized literary marketplace Ranging from the impacts of literary awards to media hate campaigns this volume spotlights how profoundly the German literary landscape and our understanding of authorship is transforming German Literature as World Literature Thomas O. Beebe, 2014-07-31 This new collection investigates German literature in its international dimensions While no single volume can deal comprehensively with such a vast topic the nine contributors cover a wide historical range with a variety of approaches and authors represented Together the essays begin to adumbrate the systematic nature of the relations between German national literature and world literature as these have developed through institutions cultural networks and individual authors In the last two decades discussions of world literature literature that resonates beyond its original linguistic and cultural contexts have come increasingly to the forefront of theoretical investigations of literature One reason for the explosion of world literature theory pedagogy and methodology is the difficulty of accomplishing either world literature criticism or world literary history The capaciousness as well as the polylingual and multicultural features of world literature present formidable obstacles to its study and call for a collaborative approach that conjoins a variety of expertise To that end this collection contributes to the critical study of world literature in its textual institutional and translatorial reality while at the same time highlighting a question that has hitherto received insufficient scholarly attention what is the relation between national and world literatures or more specifically in what senses do national literatures systematically participate in or resist world literature Historical Studies in the Nobel Archives Elisabeth T. Crawford, 2002 Nobel Prize Laureates in Literature, 2007 A biographical bibliographical guide to the writers who have received the Nobel Prize in Literature Provides entries for each Nobel Prize laureate Entries also include the Nobel Prize in Literature presentation speech for the corresponding year and the banquet speech given by the Nobel Prize laureate the Nobel Laureates of Literature, an Olympic Gathering, 1995 English Studies, 2004 Explorations in Korean Language and Linguistics Gregory K. Literature, 1993      Neighbouring Nobel Henry Nielsen, Keld Nielsen, 2001 To commemorate the centennial of the Nobel Prize in 2001 and in the light of recent critical Nobel research this volume provides an historical analysis of the work the people and the stories behind the thirteen Nobel Prizes awarded to Danes so far This represents the first time that the Nobel population of a single country has been treated in depth as a unit Danes have been awarded all five of the classic Nobel Prizes one Peace Prize three Literature three Physics one Chemistry and five Physiology or Medicine Prizes Although only one recipient is internationally famous Niels Bohr who won the Prize in 1922 for his application of quantum ideas to atomic structure the more obscure laureates are of interest precisely because they are obscure Why were they selected Who were they up against How was the news about their prize received by colleagues abroad Did the honor help or hinder their subsequent careers Prior to 1974 all deliberations behind the awarding of the Prize were strictly confidential In that year the Nobel Foundation granted access to the archives relating to prizes more than fifty years old and this now applies to nine of the Danish prizes With regard to these prizes the book explores what went on behind the scenes who nominated the laureates how their achievements were assessed and what role politics may have played On the four more recent prizes the authors interviewed the laureates about the work the Prize rewarded and the Prize's personal and professional aftermath Before this book such questions were impossible to answer since nothing had been written about the circumstances that led to any of the Danish prizes nor about how any of the thirteen laureates felt about receiving the most prestigious validation possible for a person's work Neighbouring Nobel will be a valuable addition both to the literature on the Nobel Prize and to the study of 20th century Danish history      Artes Gunnar Harding, Bengt Jangfeldt, 1997      The Cumulative Book Index, 1991 A world list of books in the English language
