Excerpt from Noble Deeds of Woman or Examples of Female Courage and Virtue The pleasure experienced by the Author in perusing the scattered records of female excellence gave rise to the idea that an interesting selection might be made from them and prove not only instructive but useful The acknowledged superiority of example over precept confirmed this Opinion and the ensuing narratives have been chosen as most suitable to the various conditions and trials of life Woman to whose fostering care the direction of infancy is intrusted to whom manhood is indebted for mental recreations and for consolation in difficulties upon whom also man in declining years depends for solace and support too often betrays her incapacity to fulfil the important duties she is called upon to undertake When thus circumstanced she frequently fails in the performance of a mother's tender obligations and she not only loses the affections but sinks in the estimation of her husband or immersed in the dissipations of society she neglects to attend to those more sacred offices on which even her own happiness depends To the just fulfilment of these it is necessary she should think feel and act correctly yet this cannot be expected while the ornamental accomplishments now cultivated with so much care are allowed to supersede the more valuable acquirements Painting music and dancing About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Excerpt from Noble Deeds American Women With Biographical Sketches of Some of the More Prominent This work was suggested by one of a similar character entitled Noble Deeds of Woman an English work which contains but three references to American Women two of which are of but very little importance Only one article in the two works is alike and that is the letter written by Mrs Sigourney to the women of Greece in 1828 in behalf of the ladies of Hartford This failure to do justice to American women may have been an oversight be that as it may a work of the kind here presented seemed to be needed and we regret that its preparation had not been assigned to an abler pen About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an
