A History of Experimental Film and Video A.L. Rees, 2019-07-25 Avant garde film is almost indefinable It is in a constant state of change and redefinition In his highly acclaimed history of experimental film A L Rees tracks the movement of the film avant garde between the cinema and modern art with its postmodern coda But he also reconstitutes the film avant garde as an independent form of art practice with its own internal logic and aesthetic discourse In this revised and updated edition Rees introduces experimental film and video to new readers interested in the wider cinema as well as offering a guide to enthusiasts of avant garde film and new media arts Ranging from Czanne and Dada via Cocteau Brakhage and Le Grice to the new wave of British film and video artists from the 1990s to the present day this expansive study situates avant garde film between the cinema and the gallery with many links to sonic as well as visual arts The new edition includes a review of current scholarship in avant garde film history and includes updated reading and viewing lists It also features a new introduction and concluding chapter which assess the rise of video projection in the gallery since the millennium and describe new work by the latest generation of experimental film makers The new edition is richly illustrated with images of the art works discussed The Routledge Companion to Biology in Art and Architecture Charissa Terranova, Meredith Tromble, 2016-08-12 The Routledge Companion to Biology in Art and Architecture collects thirty essays from a transdisciplinary array of experts on biology in art and architecture The book presents a diversity of hybrid art and science thinking revealing how science and culture are interwoven The book situates bioart and bioarchitecture within an expanded field of biology in art architecture and design It proposes an emergent field of biocreativity and outlines its historical and theoretical foundations from the perspective of artists architects designers scientists historians and theoreticians Includes over 150 black and white images Oral History Marta Kurkowska-Budzan, Krzysztof Zamorski, 2009 Oral History Challenges of Dialogue addresses oral history from two perspectives The first is the perspective of oral history as dialoguing the second is the presentation of concrete situations research persons and their own stories as built on the solid ground of discourse and within a concrete context Noise Music Paul Hegarty, 2007-09-01 Noise Music looks at the phenomenon of noise in music from experimental music of the early 20th century to the Japanese noise music and glitch electronica of today It situates different musics in their cultural and historical context and analyses them in terms of cultural aesthetics Paul Hegarty argues that noise is a judgement about sound that what was noise can become acceptable as music and that in many ways the idea of noise is similar to the idea of the avant garde While it provides an excellent historical overview the book's main concern is in the noise music that has emerged since the mid 1970s whether through industrial music punk free jazz or the purer noise of someone like Merzbow The book progresses seamlessly from discussions of John Cage Erik Satie and Pauline Oliveros through to bands like Throbbing Gristle and the Boredoms Sharp and erudite and underpinned throughout by the ideas of thinkers like Adorno and Deleuze Noise Music is the perfect primer for anyone interested in the louder side of experimental music Sensory History Mark Michael Smith, 2007 No Marketing Blurb Loading the Silence: Australian Sound Art in the Post-Digital Age Dr Linda Ioanna Kouvaras, 2013-04-28 The experimentalist phenomenon of noise as constituting art in much twentieth century music paradoxically reached its zenith in Cage's silent piece 4 33 But much post 1970s musical endeavour with an experimentalist telos collectively known as sound art has displayed a postmodern need to load modernism's degree zero After contextualizing experimentalism from its inception in the early twentieth century Dr Linda Kouvaras's Loading the Silence Australian Sound Art in the Post Digital Age explores the ways in which selected sound art works demonstrate creatively how sound is embedded within local national gendered and historical environments Taking Australian music as its primary but not sole focus the book not only covers discussions of technological advancement but also engages with aesthetic standpoints through numerous interviews theoretical developments analysis and cultural milieux for a contemporary Australian and wider postmodern context Developing new methodologies for synergies between musicology and cultural studies the book uncovers a new post postmodern aesthetic trajectory which Kouvaras locates as developing over the past two decades the and studios but in the laboratory where artists probe cultural philosophical and social questions connected with scientific and technological advances. Featuring the work of around 250 artists from the UK, Germany, France, the Netherlands, the USA, Japan and elsewhere, it presents a broad range of projects from body art to bioengineering of plants and insects, from music, dance and computer controlled video performances to large scale visual and sound installations. This comprehensive guide to contemporary art inspired or driven by scientific innovation points to intriguing new directions for the visual arts and traces a key strand in 21st century aesthetics. Publications of the Modern Language Association of America, 2005

Soundscapes of the Urban Past Karin Bijsterveld, 2013. We cannot simply listen to our urban past. Yet we encounter a rich cultural heritage of city sounds presented in text, radio and film. How can such staged sounds express the changing identities of cities? This volume presents a collection of studies on the staging of Amsterdam, Berlin and London soundscapes in historical documents, radio plays and films, and offers insights into themes such as film sound theory and museum audio guides. In doing so, this book puts contemporary controversies on urban sound in historical perspective and contextualises iconic presentations of cities. It addresses academics, students and museum workers alike. With contributions by Jasper Aalbers, Karin Bijsterveld, Carolyn Birdsall, Ross Brown, Andrew Crisell, Andreas Fickers, Annelies Jacobs, Evi Karathanasopoulou, Patricia Pisters, Holger Schulze, Mark M. Smith and Jonathan Sterne.
