Narrating Motherhood(s), Breaking the Silence Silvia Caporale-Bizzini,2006 Feminist theory on motherhood has successfully transformed mothers into subjects of their own discourse recognized the historical heterogeneous and socially constructed origins of their life experience while at the same time widening our understanding of the notion of mothering This collection combines a literary and a wider cultural perspective from which to look at the topic of the representation of other or forgotten motherhoods Mothers who have been forced to live exiled and away from their children women who after trying to conceive get pregnant but discover they cannot bear to become mothers or even literary characters based on an autobiographical experience of a sexually abusive mother The essays critically point out how writing becomes a tool to think and write about the many aspects of motherhood such as an idealized maternal experience versus the real one or the accepted stereotypes of the good mother and the bad mother The Book Of Women's Love Carmen Caballero-Navas,2014-07-10 First published in 2005 The first part of this book is an historical study of the Hebrew written production on women's healthcare and of Jewish women's lives and experiences regarding the care of their bodies during the late Middle Ages in the Mediterranean West The aim is to restore value to feminine knowledge and practices that were significant then and remain so today The second part presents an edition translated into English with commentary of the Hebrew compilation Sefer Ahavat Nashim the Book of Women's Love This was compiled in the late Middle Ages and is preserved in a single manuscript from Catalonia Provence Its contents are concerned with magic sexuality cosmetics and gynecology areas of knowledge essentially though not exclusively related to women The author focuses on the relation between women and health care and examines both women's knowledge and knowledge about women. This pioneering work makes a valuable contribution to the history of Jewish culture and Jewish women during the Middle Ages and also makes a substantial contribution to the history of medicine.

Del diagrama a las experiencias, hacia una arquitectura de la acción Josep Maria Montaner Martorell, 2014-09-30. Nos encontramos en un periodo de profunda transformación productiva social y de valores. En arquitectura más allá del avance de los sistemas de representación arquitectónica y la evolución de los tipos constructivos, cada vez es más manifiesta la necesidad de una renovación profunda de la teoría y la crítica. Este libro plantea una refundación teórica y práctica de la arquitectura a partir de la vinculación explícita de tres ejes instrumentales ligados a ella: los diagramas, las experiencias y las acciones. Por medio de la exploración de conceptos, herramientas y casos prácticos emblemáticos, Josep Maria Montaner disecciona por un lado el carácter abstracto de las creaciones arquitectónicas que han sido proyectadas a través de los diagramas y por otro la complejidad de las experiencias vivenciales y la intencionalidad de las acciones de colectivos y creadores que buscan una intervención activa y crítica sobre la realidad. Una investigación que aproxima la arquitectura y el urbanismo a la filosofía, la sociología, la antropología y la geografía para forzarla a salir de los límites de su propia abstracción y en definitiva dar entrada a la experiencia como contrapunto del despotismo de la razón y de la mirada técnica.

Revisión bibliográfica sobre mujeres y educación en España (1983-2007) Montserrat Grañeras Pastrana, 2007. El libro consta de dos partes. En la primera se realiza un recorrido por las políticas públicas de Igualdad y el marco normativo relacionado con la educación de las mujeres. En la segunda parte se presenta sistemáticamente organizada la bibliografía correspondiente al tema de educación y mujer.

Honour and Disgrace Isabel Pérez Molina, 2001. This study analyses the legal condition of women in Catalonia, Spain, in the early modern ages, particularly during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, by way of the study of primary legal sources. The legal discourse was conceived as being different for men and women; women were treated as a specific social category, were judicially discriminated against and were given inferior legal personality. Following the moral discourse of the time, jurists classified women as honest and dishonest and tried to establish a physical and legal barrier to divide the good from the bad. As a result, women were before the law pawns for male decisions. However, women did not easily comply with the submissive role attributed to them, and as civil lawsuits show, often they used the law that discriminated them in their own benefit.
