Finck, 1901 The most important function of musical criticism is in my opinion discovering and calling attention to good things the merits of which are not sufficiently known to the public and to arouse enthusiasm for them Therefore instead of writing a compendium of useless knowledge about insignificant composers and antiquated songs that have merely a historic interest making a dry catalog of a thousand pages that nobody would read I have endeavored to give this short volume an eminently practical character ignoring what is antiquated trashy or commonplace mentioning so far as possible whatever is good but dwelling in detail and with enthusiasm only on the best making the book in short a sort of Song Baedeker with bibliographic footnotes for the benefit of students who wish to pursue the subject further Preface      The Complete Club Book for Women Caroline French Benton, 1915
