Noonday Changes Leon Wren, 2004-12-01 Bicycle racing is often harsh and unyielding sparing in its rewards making it the perfect backdrop to tell a story framed around normal people struggling to find themselves as they reach for and define their dreams The protagonists of Noonday Changes brothers Damion and Denis grow up in Paradoxa a place with far more farming machinery than racing bicycles Seemingly unaware of the paradox Damion the elder makes professional bicycle racing his dream pursuing his ambition to become a Euro Pro When his life tragically changes so do his dreams Racing professionally becomes deferred not forgotten and a way of atoning for the guilt he feels Denis follows in the pedal strokes of his brother whom he idolizes and finds the road equally rough for very different reasons He is torn between his desire to become an American professional and his intellectual goals Denis finds these tandem mistresses at odds Their war within him threatens to destroy the evolving self he is discovering

The Afternoon of Christianity Tomáš Halík, 2024-03-01 Tom Halík provides a poignant reflection on Christianity's crisis of faith while offering a vision of the self reflection love and growth necessary for the church to overcome and build a deeper and more mature faith In a world transformed by secularization and globalization torn by stark political and social distrust and ravaged by war and pandemic Christians are facing a crisis of faith In The Afternoon of Christianity Tom Halík reflects on past and present challenges confronting Christian faith drawing together strands from the Bible historic Christian theology philosophy psychology and classic literature In the process he reveals the current crisis as a crossroads one road leads toward division and irrelevance while the other provides the opportunity to develop a deeper more credible and mature form of church theology and spirituality an afternoon epoch of Christianity The fruitfulness of the reform and the future vibrancy of the Church depends on a reconnection with the deep spiritual and existential dimension of faith Halík argues that Christianity must transcend itself giving up isolation and self centeredness in favor of loving dialogue with people of different cultures languages and religions The search for God in all things frees Christian life from self absorption and leads toward universal fraternity one of Pope Francis's key themes This renewal of faith can help the human family move beyond a clash of civilizations to a culture of communication sharing and respect for diversity
