TVA Archaeology Erin E. Pritchard, 2009 Since its inception in 1933 the Tennessee Valley Authority has played a dual role as federal agency and steward of the Tennessee River Valley While known to most people today as an energy provider the agency is also charged with managing and protecting the nation s fifth largest river system the Tennessee River and vast tracts of land and resources encompassing Tennessee and portions of Alabama Georgia Kentucky Mississippi North Carolina and Virginia Included in TVA s mandate is the preservation of the archaeological record of the valley s prehistoric peoples a record that would have been forever lost beneath floodwaters had TVA not demonstrated a commitment to minimize its impact on the valley and sought to protect its archaeological resources In TVA Archaeology fourteen contributors who have worked with TVA in its conservation effort discuss prehistoric excavations conducted at Tellico Normandy Jonathan s Creek and many other sites They explore TVA s role in the excavations and how the agency facilitated prehistoric investigations along proposed dam sites They also delve into the history of TVA as it grew from a New Deal program to a federal corporation and reveal how during the agency s formative years the TVA board responded to prodding from archaeologists David DeJarnette and William Webb and molded TVA into the steward of a region it is today TVA remains a mainstay of progress and conservation within an important region of the United States and its safeguarding of the valley s prehistory cements its legacy as more than just an energy supplier Students and researchers interested in prehistoric archaeology the Tennessee Valley and the history of TVA will find this volume an invaluable contribution to the study of the region Erin E Pritchard is an archaeologist with the Tennessee Valley Authority Her work includes multiple archaeological site investigations most notably Dust Cave in northern Alabama and she has authored and coauthored numerous site reports for TVA

Authority in Vintage Postcards Mark Allen Stevenson, 2005 Created by the federal government in 1933 to revitalize a region twice the size of New England the Tennessee Valley Authority began as an experiment of unprecedented proportions Seen here through picture postcards the dramatic achievements of the TVA take on a personal aspect as individuals visit the hydroelectric projects and enjoy the newly created recreational opportunities Tangible benefits are also documented such as improved navigation new roads and bridges and abundant and inexpensive electricity Influenced by such visionaries as

Gifford Pinchot Theodore Roosevelt and George Norris the agency also dealt with regional issues including river commerce soil conservation and flood control

Congress and of All Departments of the Government of the United States for the Period from ... to ... United States. Superintendent of Documents,      Arthur Morgan Aaron D. Purcell,2026-10-25 On May 19 1933 President Franklin D Roosevelt announced the appointment of Arthur Morgan 1878 1975 a water control engineer and college president from Ohio as the chairman of the newly created Tennessee Valley Authority TVA With the eyes of the nation focused on the reform and recovery promised by the New Deal Morgan remained in the national spotlight for much of the 1930s as his visionary plans for the TVA drew both support and criticism In this thoughtful biography Aaron D Purcell re assesses Morgan s long life and career and provides the first detailed account of his post TVA activities and fascination with utopian writer Edward Bellamy As Purcell demonstrates Morgan embraced an alternative type of Progressive Era reform throughout his life which was rooted in nineteenth century socialism an overlooked but important strain in American political thought Purcell pinpoints Morgan s reading of Edward Bellamy s Looking Backward while a teenager as a watershed moment in the development of his vision for building modern American society He recounts Morgan s early successes as an engineer budding Progressive leader and educational reformer his presidency of Antioch College and his revolutionary but contentious tenure at the TVA After his dismissal from the TVA Morgan wrote extensively eventually publishing over a dozen books including a biography of Edward Bellamy and countless articles He also raised money to support an experimental community in Kerala India sharing Mahatma Gandhi s belief in small self sustaining communities cooperatively supported by persons of strong moral character At the same time however Morgan retained many of his late nineteenth century beliefs including eugenics as part of his societal vision His authoritarian administrative style and moral rigidity limited his ability to attract large numbers to his community based vision As Purcell demonstrates Morgan remained an active reformer well into the second half of the twentieth century carrying forward a vision for American reform decades after his Progressive Era contemporaries had faded into obscurity By presenting Morgan s life and career within the context of the larger social and cultural events of his day this revealing biographical study offers new insight into the achievements and motivations of an important but historically neglected American reformer
