Non-Governmental Organizations and the State in Latin America Anthony Bebbington, Graham Thiele, 2023-06-16 This presents twenty specially commissioned case studies of farmer participatory approaches to agricultural innovation initiated by NGOs in Latin America. Beginning with a broad review of institutional activity at the grassroots the authors set the case material within the context of NGO relations with the State and their contribution to democratisation and the consolidation of rural civil society. Specific questions are raised how good bad are NGOs at promoting technological innovation and addressing constraints to change in present agriculture how effective are NGOs at strengthening grassroots organizations and how do will donor pressures influence NGOs and their links to the State. This title is part of a series on Non Governmental Organizations co ordinated by the Overseas Development Institute. To complete this comprehensive review and critique there are two other regional case study volumes on Asia and Africa and an overview volume Reluctant Partners

Reluctant Partners? Non-Governmental Organizations, the State and Sustainable Agricultural Development Anthony Bebbington, John Farrington, David J. Lewis, Kate Wellard, 2005-07-15 Reluctant Partners combines comprehensive empirical insights into NGOs work in agriculture with wider considerations of their relations with the State and their contribution to democratic pluralism. This overview volume for the Non Governmental Organizations series contextualizes and synthesizes the case study material in the three regional volumes on Africa, Asia and Latin America where over sixty specially commissioned case studies of farmer participatory approaches to agricultural innovation are presented. Specific questions are raised How good bad are NGOs at promoting technological innovation and addressing constraints to change in peasant culture How effective are NGOs at strengthening local organizations How do will donor pressures influence NGOs and their links to the State. The Economics and Politics of NGOs in Latin America Carrie Meyer, 1999-07-30 Combining a political economic perspective and case studies this book clarifies the role of Latin America's non governmental organizations in the global community. Non-Governmental Organizations in the Global System George Kaloudis, 2021-05-04 Non state actors are not new but they have never before reached their present strength Among the plethora of non state actors are thousands if not millions of non governmental organizations NGOs which play a significant role in the global system and whose role is likely to increase in the future The proliferation of NGOs is of such scale scholars refer to it as a global associational revolution By considering NGOs throughout much of the world Kaloudis focuses on the reasons for the growth of NGOs particularly since the end of the Cold War the functions of NGOs assessment of NGOs and their place in the global system The author also shows the ambivalent and often paradoxical role of NGOs which is reflected in the works of scholars and the actual behavior of NGOs themselves

Non-governmental organizations and the sustainability of small and medium-sized enterprises in Peru Walter V. Castro Aponte,2023-09-04 This book provides a better understanding of the changing roles of non governmental organizations NGOs in promoting sustainability of small and medium sized enterprises SMEs in Peru The book focuses on the domains of organic production business social responsibility and sustainable production The innovative study uses a combination of network and discourse analyses to identify the main patterns and shifts in the roles of NGOs in order to deal with sustainability and the market Two major contemporary sociological theories ecological modernization theory and network society theory are applied to frame the analysis The in depth analysis of international networks of NGOs operating in Peru provide valuable inputs in terms of changes in network and discourse patterns and consequently changing roles for NGOs Remarkably social movement liberal market and sustainability viewpoints are generating new networks and new discourses with a prominent position of national and international NGOs vis vis SMEs and in absence of the national state Next to the usual watchdog roles NGOs are developing roles of helper in order to answer to the market needs of SMEs The analyses challenges Castells scheme of space of flows versus space of place and suggests considering in ecological modernization theory both ecological rationality and social rationality in order to advance environmental governance of SMEs in developing countries particularly in Latin America
