Performing Nordic Heritage Lizette Gradén, 2016-05-13 The performance of heritage takes place in prestigious institutions such as museums and archives in officially sanctioned spaces such as jubilees and public monuments but also in more mundane ephemeral and banal cultural practices such as naming of phenomena viewing exhibitions or walking in the countryside This volume examines the performance of Nordic heritage and the shaping of the very idea of Norden in diverse contexts in North America the Baltic and the Nordic countries and examines the importance of these places as sites for creating and preserving cultural heritage Offering rich perspectives on a part of Europe which has not been the centre of discussion in the Anglophone world this volume will be of value to a wide readership including cultural historians museum practitioners policy makers and scholars of heritage ethnology and folkloristics The Bark Canoes and Skin Boats of Northern Eurasia Harri Luukkanen, William W. Fitzhugh, 2020-09-15 The Bark Canoes and Skin Boats of Northern Eurasia is a history and description of bark and skin boat traditions of the native peoples of Scandinavia and northern Russia The history of northern peoples and cultures is inextricably linked to the technology of water transport This is particularly true in northern Eurasia where lakes and rivers can connect when overland summer travel is restricted by thick forests or bogs For thousands of years native peoples used a variety of bark and skin boats for fishing hunting trading making war and migrating The Eurasian peoples responding to their geography climate and environment learned to construct and perfect small watercraft made from dug out logs or the bark of birch aspen larch and other trees each variety crafted for its special use and environment The text describes the design construction and uses of skin and bark boats for thirty five traditional cultures ranging from northern Scandinavia to the Russian Far East from the Bering Strait to northern China and from South Siberia to the Arctic Ocean Regional chapters use evidence from archaeology historical illustrations and maps and extensive documentation from ethnography and historical literature to reveal how differences in cultural traditions historical relationships climate and geography have influenced the development and spread of watercraft before the introduction of modern planked boats This definitive volume is richly illustrated with historical photographs and drawings first person explorer accounts from the 16th 19th centuries and information on traditional bark and skin preparation wood bending and other construction techniques The Bark Canoes and Skin Boats of Northern Eurasia presents a first ever overview of northern Eurasian boating traditions and serves as the companion to Charles Adney's and Howard Chapelle's classic The Bark Canoes and Skin Boats of North America 1964 Libraries, Archives, and Museums in Transition Casper Hvenegaard Rasmussen, Kerstin Rydbeck, Håkon Larsen, 2022-12-15 In this anthology top scholars researching libraries archives and museums LAM issues in Scandinavia explore pressing issues for contemporary LAMs In recent decades relations between libraries archives and museums have changed rapidly collections have been digitized books documents and objects have been mixed in new ways and LAMs have picked up new tasks in response to external changes Libraries now host makerspaces and literary workshops archives fight climate change and support indigenous people and museums are used as instruments for economic growth and urban planning At first glance the described changes may appear as a divergent development where the LAMs are growing apart However this book demonstrates that the present transformation of LAMs is primarily a convergent development Libraries Archives and Museums in Transition will be essential reading for students scholars and practitioners seeking to get on top of the LAM literature or the particularities of Scandinavian LAMs

Scandinavia since 1500 Byron J. Nordstrom, 2023-06-27 An updated edition of the definitive history of Scandinavia over the past five centuries Despite certain distinctions and differences the lands of Scandinavia or Norden Sweden Norway Finland Iceland Denmark and the Faroe Islands are united by bonds of culture language and geography and by a shared history that comes richly to life in this landmark work Now in an expanded updated edition this authoritative chronicle of five centuries of Scandinavian history incorporates the geopolitical developments and momentous events that have marked the Nordic world in recent decades Scandinavia since 1500 situates the region's political history within the traditional European chronology in which the long modern period is subdivided into the Renaissance early modern modern and contemporary Within this framework Byron J Nordstrom traces the various ways in which economic social and cultural ideas and practices have come to Scandinavia from abroad only to be modified and recast in a uniquely Nordic character Long unquestioned national mythologies come under Nordstrom's scrutiny along with historical blind spots and erasures as he ranges from canonical figures like Gustavus Adolphus of Sweden and Christian IV of Denmark to the constitutions of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the resistance movements in World War II and the Scandinavian welfare states literary culture and modern design Expanded to include the nature and realities of the increasingly postindustrial economies of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries including environmental concerns integration with Europe globalization and immigration Scandinavia since 1500 offers a comprehensive yet nuanced portrait of this unique region in all its political diplomatic social economic and cultural complexity Cover alt text Bold white title and author name across breathtaking snowy landscape of sun touched cliffs beside a waterway and scattering of homes Northern and Arctic Invertebrates in the Collection of the Swedish State Museum (Riksmuseum): Alcyonacea, by A.R.
